PROCEEDINGS AT THE ANNIVERSARY

OF THE

AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

THE American Christian Missionary Society met in Annual Session on Tuesday, October 20th, 1857, at the Christian Chapel, corner of Eighth and Walnut streets, Cincinnati, Ohio, at 2¹/₂ o'clock P. M.

The President, A. Campbell, took the chair, and the meeting was opened with devotional exercises.

The first item in the order of business being the enrollment of Delegates, the names and contributions of members were entered.

On motion, a committee of three was appointed by the Chair to prepare business for the future sessions of the Society, consisting of brethren T. J. Murdock, A. Raines and J. P. Robison.

The Corresponding Secretary's Report was then read and accepted.

REPORT OF THE CORRESPONDING SECRETARY.

DEAR BRETHREN: ---By the blessing of Heaven, we have been brought safely through another Missionary year, and have happily assembled to participate in the Anniversary exercises. I am truly thankful that we enjoy the gracious privilege of this occasion, that we may avail ourselves of the mutual counsels and advices of many devoted and experienced brothren from abroad. I therefore invite your attention while I proceed to make a brief report of the condition of the Society, the efforts that have been made, what has been accomplished, and our prospects.

1. The interests of the Society have been affected no little, in the loss, by death, of several distinguished brethren, especially the industrious, untiring and devoted John T. Johnson. This faithful and devoted man of God had the cause of Missions upon his soul, and made appeals to the brethren, such as generally met a hearty response. He has finished the work the Lord gave him to do, has gone to his reward and his works do follow him. Several other brethren, such as S. W. Irwin and H. W. Parrish, warm friends to the Missionary Society, are also, we trust, at rest with the fathers. We lament the loss of these great men; but we have bid them adieu for time, and must struggle on if we would win the prize.

2. It has been an exceedingly difficult year to raise funds. Large districts of the country, all the fore part of the year, were almost destitute of all kinds of produce for market, owing to the extended draught last year. About as soon as the produce of this year began to come into market, the general derangement and embarrassment in business has spread throughout the country. This has had much effect upon the Society. Though it is generally conceded that the words, "charity begins at home," are not Scripture of divine authority or sanctioned by sound reason, men generally act upon them. If they are a little pressed for means, they let the general Missionary Society go; if a little more pressed, they let the State Missionary Society go; next the church goes.

3. The previous bad fortune of our other Societies has had no little to do in embarrassing us. It is true, we harmonized at our meeting one year ago, decided upon the course to be pursued; and as far as the matter is understood, and we have been able to hear, there is a general satisfaction with the arrangement. So far as we have been able to gather the mind of the brotherhood, we think they are generally favorable to the General Missionary Society, to operate upon foreign fields. But they prefer the State Missionary Society for our own country.

4. For the satisfaction of some brethren, a word of explanation, touching the connection of Bro. C. L. Loos with the Society, as Corresponding Secretary, may be necessary. It was known to the Society when he was appointed, from his own candid and unreserved statement, that it might turn out so that he could not serve only a short time. Still, it was hoped that it might turn out otherwise, and that his valuable services might be obtained permanently. The contingency upon which this depended, was a partial committal to another engagement. He was held to this committal, and, under all the circumstances, thought it his duty to resign and take charge of Eureka College. This was a matter of deep regret to the Board, as the Society much needed the undivided attention of the Corresponding Secretary. At the solicitation of the Board, I have acted since January 1st, as Corresponding Secretary, but hoped before this to have been released. I have had a clerk who has assisted me much all the time. I have corresponded extensively by letter, by circular and in person with the brotherhood. I have kept the matter before the brotherhood in the public prints. In one word, I have allowed no opportunity to pass without doing all in my power to promote the interests of the Society.

5. The instruction of the Society in the annual meeting one year ago, was to make our first effort for the re-establishment of the Jerusalem Mission. This, as a matter of course, cut us off from doing anything else till this work was well provided for. This the Board has had in view and labored for with every means in its power. But, as yet, the Missionary family are not ready, nor have we the estimated amount for the outfit.

6. At an early period in the year, we determined to appoint quite a large number of agents, well-tried and reliable men, whose names and reputation would commend them to the respect of the brethren. We corresponded with many on the subject—several consented to act, and were appointed; yet all that has been done in this way is but little. We have not been able to induce a single man to take the field and make it his work to raise funds for the Society. The work of agency among us, as a people, has become so ungracious, that but few men who can do anything at it will have anything to do with it. Several brethren have acted gratuitously and raised funds, refusing any compensation for their services, as in case of Bro. T. M. Allen, of Missouri. But, as yet, comparatively little has been done by agents, nor do I see any possibility of doing much in that way.

7. An effort was made in the General Missionary Meeting at Macomb, Illinois, to induce the churches to have stated periods to contribute for the Missionary work. The opinion appeared unanimous, that if any course could be pursued by which the matter could be brought before every church at stated periods, and contribution made for the purpose, there would be no lack of funds. An effort of the same kind has been made in the Kentucky State Missionary Society. I have advocated this in the prints, and wherever I have gone, and hoped that we would be able to induce some general action. I am still inclined to the opinion that, if our public men will give a little attention to this, they can, in a short time, induce general and regular contribution. The trouble is, and has been, that we have no general and regular action. What is done, is done by a few, and the multitudes do not do anything. The contributions this year for the Missionary Society have come from a few hundreds of brethren, in the place of coming from many thousands.

8. That there is a decided improvement in the heart of the brotherhood, this year over last, in reference to the Missionary cause, is, I think, as evident as that a rapid improvement has taken place in many other respects. The Missionary spirit is on the increase, just in proportion as the general interests of the cause of Christ is on the increase. We must, with the principles we hold, at no very distant period, become a great Missionary people. But there has been strong prejudice against the Missionary Society. This we have labored to counteract, and, I think, to a considerable extent, it has abated. I do not believe there is now any considerable amount of prejudice against the Society, or opposition to it, any place where there would be any thing of consequence done for it, if all prejudices were removed. But it is not enough that there be no prejudice against a society of this kind. Before it can succeed, there must be an interest in its favor sufficient to induce brethren to contribute for its support. I believe that, with the general unanimity that now exists in reference to the Society, with anything like a persevering effort, something respectable will be accomplished. Still, I am sorry to be compelled to admit that the operation this year makes but a small show.

9. Dr. Barclay informs me that he hoped to be ready for his departure for Jerusalem early in September. I presume he has been providentially hindered, as he has still not informed me of his readiness. Nor have we, as yet, the estimated amount for the outfit and one year's support. Owing to the perilous voyage at this late season of the year, and some other matters unpropitious at present, it is my opinion, that for the safety of the Missionary family and the good of the Mission, he had better not depart till such time in the Spring as he may deem safe.

As to the Mission to Jamaica, but little interest has been evinced in reference to it. Bro. J. O. Beardslee, of Collamar, Ohio, visited us, recommended by sundry brethren, conversed freely with us upon the subject, was cordially and unanimously appointed agent to visit the brethren, lay the matter before them, and raise funds for the Missionary Society, in view of that Mission. We gave him every encouragement in our power, and his effort as agent, in this city, was responded to heartily. After leaving here, he wrote us in terms of encouragement; but soon after wrote again, resigning his agency. His resignation has since been accepted. Since then, nothing of consequence has been doing with an eye to that work.

Seventeen hundred and fifty-two dollars and forty-five cents have passed through my hands to the Recording Secretary, since January 1st, 1857, the time when I commenced to act as Corresponding Secretary for the Society. I am of the same opinion expressed almost or quite unanimously by the members of the Society one year ago, and what I think the unanimous opinion of the Board, viz.: That we should have a Corresponding Secretary who could give his undivided attention to the interests of the Society. I therefore recommend that the Society, if possible, appoint such a Corresponding Secretary, when they will please accept my resignation. All of which is respectfully submitted.

BENJ. FRANKLIN, Cor. Sec'y.

On motion of Bro. J. P. Robison, it was Resolved, That so much of that portion of the Corresponding Secretary's Report as relates to Bro. J. O. Beardslee, be referred to a committee of three.

Whereupon the Chair appointed brethren E. Goodwin, A. Raines and C. H. Hurlbutt.

On motion it was

Resolved, That the Report of the Corresponding Secretary be laid on the table until the Committee make a report.

The Reports of the Treasurer, Recording Secretary and Auditor were then read and accepted, and afterwards, on motion, adopted.

The Report of said Committee is as follows:

The Committee to whom was referred that portion of the Secretary's Report which refers to the resignation of Bro. J. O. Beardslee as agent, beg leave to report that they have carefully considered the same, and have learned that his resignation was occasioned by his mistaking the action of the editor of the Christian Age, in declining to publish certain documents, for the action of the Missionary Board, and that Brother Beardslee is now fully sastisfied that no injustice has been done him by the Board, or by the editor of the Age. We, therefore, recommend the adoption of the Secretary's Report. All of which is respectfully submitted.

AUDITOR'S REPORT.

I have carefully examined the accounts of the Recording Secretary, comparing his receipts, or debit side of his account, with the reports of brethren Loos, Eaton, Pickett and Franklin, and find them correct. I have also examined his account of expenditures, or credit side, and find it to agree with his receipts from the Treasurer.

It is but just to the Recording Secretary to say, that his books are kept in a neat business like manner, evincing much labor in classifying the various accounts.

I have also examined the accounts of the Treasurer; finding that he has vouchers, or orders from the Board for all sums disbursed, and that the accounts of the Treasurer and Recording Secretary agree throughout.

The reports of the Corresponding Secretary and Agents, (who raised the money from the donors), all pass before the Board of Directors for their acceptance, and do not, therefore, require any examination of tha Auditor. All of which is respectfully submitted.

C. H. Gould, Auditor.

Cincinnati, Oct. 20th, 1857.

TO THE BROTHERHOOD OF DISCIPLES.

many, whose judgment I am compelled to respect, I have very reluctantly consented to accept the Corresponding Secretaryship of the American Christian Missionary Society. It has been accepted with the assurance that the brethren generally are earnestly determined to do something in the missionary work, commensurate with its importance and grandeur, and with the ability which belongs to the two hundred and fifty thousand Disciples in the United States. Many brethren have pledged themselves to go to work to aid in spreading information, creating interest and raising money. We appeal to all who love our Lord Jesus Christ, to come up to the help of the Lord against the mighty. The Barclay family are ready to return to Jerusalem, to continue their missionary labors in a field which they love the more, as they learn the more of it, and to which they go back with great confidence in the ultimate success of their labors. Other missions, domestic and foreign, are projected, of which the brethren will hear shortly, through our periodicals. About $2,500 have been obtained in pledges and receipts during the sittings of the Convention. It is purposed to raise twenty thousand dollars this year, for home and foreign missions. We humbly trust in God that the time has arrived, when we shall rise up, as one man, and work in this most blessed enterprise.

Âll communications for the Corresponding Secretary must be addressed to him at Cincinnati, Ohio. ISAAO ERRETT.

CINCINNATI, October 22nd, 1857.

BOOK NOTICE.

A BRIEF VIEW OF MISSIONS-ANCIENT AND MODERN. By ELDER ISAAC ERRETT.

The above is the title of a pamphlet of some sixty pages, published by the American Christian Missionary Society. It presents a bird's eye view of missions, and is designed for the masses who have not time to read large works. The Society is anxious to spread information on this subject. It is hoped that the churches and benevolent individuals will purchase this little work by the dozen and hundred, and circulate gratuitously. It is designed to furnish it at cost. As nearly as we can now estimate, it will be sold at ten cents a single copy; six dollars per hundred copies, sent by express; seven dollars and a half per hundred, sent by mail, postage prepaid. Orders promptly filled by H. S. Boswoarn, Cincunnati, Ohio. JACOB BURNET, Chairman of Committee.

CINCINNATI, October 29th, 1857.

NOTICE.

HAVING made arrangements with Bro. H. S. BOSWORTH, to attend to my business when I am absent from the city, all letters on Missionary matters, and remittances for the American Christian Missionary Society, should be addressed to ISAAC ERRET, care of H. S. BOSWORTH, Cincinnati, Ohio.

ISAAC ERRETT.
