EXODUS EXPEDITION

92ND ANNUAL ABILENE CHRISTIAN UNIVERSITY SUMMIT
SEPTEMBER 20-23, 2009 • ABILENE, TEXAS

God said, "I will be with you;
and this shall be the sign for you that it is I who sent you:
when you have brought the people out of Egypt,
you shall worship God
on this mountain."

-Exodus 3:12 (NRSV)

HISTORY

Founding president A.B. Barret probably did not realize what he was starting when, in January 1907 – during the first academic year of Childers Classical Institute – he invited Dr. George A. Klingman to do a weeklong lecture series for students.

These lectures were an immediate success. Over time, president Jesse P. Sewell added speakers and dubbed the event “ACC Bible Lectures” in 1918. Early ACC students thought of this event as the highlight of the academic year.

Now, 103 years later, Summit stands in this tradition of bringing together students, ministers, faculty, Christians and church leaders from around the world in the name of Jesus Christ. The vitality of all ages of people passionate about serving Christ has returned. Last year, thousands of students participated in the conversation through their participation, praying, planning and ideas for Summit.

FEATURED GUESTS

All sessions will take place in Moody Coliseum

We offer the hospitality of Christ to these well-known individuals who will stimulate and challenge our minds and hearts. These guests are sponsored in part by ACU's Adams Center for Teaching and Learning, the Graduate School of Theology, the College of Education and Human Services, the Honors College, the Students' Association, the First-Year Program, the Center for Youth and Family Ministry and the College of Business Administration.

CARLOS SEPULVEDA

American Idols Classifications of Contemporary Idols and Their Leverage Points in Your Life

Monday, 3 p.m.

Carlos Sepulveda serves as president and CEO of Interstate Battery System International, Inc., a $1.5 billion, privately-held company based in Dallas, Texas. Before becoming president and CEO in May 2004, Sepulveda served in various executive roles since joining the company in 1990. He holds a B.B.A. with highest honors from The University of Texas at Austin (1979) and he earned his CPA in 1981. Sepulveda and his wife have four sons and reside in University Park, Texas. He seeks to provide practical advice for being "in the world but not of the world" by sharing his journey with others.

KATHLEEN NORRIS

Got Acedia? Who Cares?

Tuesday, 3 p.m.

Kathleen Norris is the award-winning poet, writer, speaker and author of the New York Times bestsellers The Cloister Walk, Dakota: A Spiritual Geography (New York Times Notable Book of the Year), Amazing Grace: A Vocabulary of Faith, and The Virgin of Bennington. Exploring the spiritual life, her work is at once intimate and historical, rich in poetry and meditations, brimming with exasperation and reverence, deeply grounded in both nature and spirit, sometimes funny, often provocative. Norris will speak on her newest book, Acedia & Me: A Marriage, Monks, and a Writer's Life. Widowed in 2003, Norris now divides her time between South Dakota and Hawaii.

DONALD MILLER

A Million Miles in a Thousand Years

Wednesday, 3 p.m.

Donald Miller is a sought-after speaker and author of many books. His best-known work, Blue Like Jazz, was a New York Times bestseller. He frequently speaks at colleges and conferences across the country, addressing the relevancy of Christian spirituality to explain and heal the dynamics of the human heart. Miller has addressed a wide range of audiences, from the Women of Faith Conference to young men who grew up without fathers and students at Harvard University. In 2008, he delivered the closing prayer on Monday night at the Democratic National Convention. Miller is the founder of The Mentoring Project, a not-for-profit foundation which partners with local churches to create mentoring programs for young men growing up without fathers.

LIFE & MINISTRY

Life and ministry are not separate categories of service but describe every Christian's journey. While some Christians take their livelihood from ministry, every Christian lives in ministry. The context of our lives is the space God has given us to creatively express the gospel in every moment. This track is intended for those interested in daily discipleship and equipping people for ministry and service.

GOSPEL & CULTURE

People of faith wrestle to express the gospel with our lives in a postmodern world. How does the gospel connect with the world? The world is increasingly ignorant of or hostile to Christianity, yet at the same time there is a growing spiritual awareness represented in movies, television and books. These classes explore how Christ addresses culture and is found within culture.

JUSTICE & MERCY

The terminology of justice and mercy is not reserved for the church building, but the performance of justice and the love of mercy must be lived by Christians in the world. Jesus called us to sacrifice, mercy and love. These classes encourage Christians to take justice from the pages of scripture and live them in the routines of life.

THE WORD IN MOTION

Sunday, 8:30-9:30 p.m.,
WPA, Fulks Theatre
ACU Department of Theatre
Students and Faculty

Like a great landscape painting, music unfolds in front of the listener phrase after phrase, shape after shape. This concert will explore the ways mountains inform musical compositions from the nineteenth century to the present. Chamber music that metaphorically portrays iconic mountains, songs whose texts recall Alpine journeys, and contemporary works with craggy melodies and influences as diverse as Moriah, Everest, and Olympus.

Seating is limited to one show

Tuesday, 8:30-9:30 p.m., WPA Recital Hall
ACU Department of Music Students and Faculty
Free tickets at Will Call or 325-674-2462

Art Exhibit

TALMUD: THE ART OF BEN ZION AND MARC CHAGALL

This show brings together the Biblical work of two of the most important Jewish artists of the 20th Century (Ben Zion and Marc Chagall). Even though Talmud deals traditionally with text and not image, these images are commentaries on the text of Scripture in the best of the Talmudic tradition.

Don H. Morris Center, Shore Art Gallery
Exhibit open Monday-Friday, 9 a.m. - 5 p.m.

IRON POUR

This Monday evening event will showcase the process of melting and pouring iron using traditional cupola furnace techniques that date back more than a century. Art students will be involved in all aspects of the process, including the making of iron bowls/skillets that on Wednesday will be filled with soup and sold, with the proceeds helping to feed the hungry.

Monday, 8:30 p.m. Iron Pour at the grassy area west of Teague Special Events Center

MUSIC GROUPS, ETC.

MONDAY

New Reign

from Oklahoma Christian University

2:25-2:50 p.m. • Teague Special Events Center

New Reign is a group of OC students who travel throughout the world sharing the gospel through their contemporary a cappella concerts.

Bob Smiley

8:30-9:30 p.m. • Brown Library, Learning Commons

Bob Smiley has a heart for bringing people closer to God by getting them to laugh at not-so-everyday situations. Of course, that quote came from his mom, who can't understand why the Dallas Mavericks never called him when they needed a good point guard. Smiley uses stand-up comedy as a way to draw people in so he can tell them the good news of Jesus.

TUESDAY

Southwestern Christian Choir

from Southwestern Christian College

2:25-2:50 p.m. • Teague Special Events Center

Summer Singers

from Oklahoma Christian University

8:30-9:30 p.m. • McGlothlin Campus Center, Bean Sprout

The Summer Singers include OC students who spend their summers traveling around the U.S. performing a mix of rock, country and pop music for all ages. This select group shares their love of music and performing and showing their love for God.

WEDNESDAY

South Africa Outreach Project

2:25-2:50 p.m. • Teague Special Events Center

Christians from across the country combine voices with a talented group of singers from the South Africa Outreach Project (SAOP) in a unique blend of African-American Gospel music. SAOP assists disadvantaged South Africans and the growth of the churches of Christ in South Africa.

The Rocketboys

8:45-10 p.m. • McGlothlin Campus Center, Bean Sprout

Winners of a "battle of the bands" at the 2008 Austin City Limits Music Festival, The Rocketboys return to campus with their ambient rock sound and an enthusiastic, loyal fan base.

FROM THE PRESIDENT

On behalf of the ACU family and our 86,000 alumni, welcome to Summit. For 103 years, Abilene Christian has been a place of worship, conversation, learning and preparation for life as God's people.

ACU continues to be at the innovative edge, leading the world in how we prepare people for life, yet the foundation of our work and this movement is our ancient and eternal faith in God. We intend to be people who think critically, globally and missionally.

Summit is a place where a diverse group of people gathers to worship God. Students, faculty, church leaders and other people seeking the way of Jesus come to be encouraged and equipped for life lived in faith. Talk with students. Talk with people older and younger than you. Enter healthy conversation promoting our unity in Christ. Visit the new Hunter Welcome Center. Walk the Labyrinth. Meditate at Jacob's Dream. Enjoy your time in Abilene and rediscover ACU as a spiritual oasis in West Texas and the world.

Thankfully,

Royce Money, President, Abilene Christian University

FROM THE DIRECTOR

Growing up in Colorado, the mountains were imprinted upon my soul. We lived more than a mile high in one of the loftiest suburbs of Denver: Arvada. The Rocky Mountains towered over us on the west.

One Summit leads to another. You have found your way to Abilene for Summit 2009, "On the Mountain with God: Exodus Expedition." Whether you are listening live online via Acappella Radio, sitting on the Hill here in Abilene or listening to replays of these conversations on iTunes or CD, you are one of 10,000 people at Summit focused upon God. He has brought you here and is with you.

However you came to this Summit, my prayer is you will catch a vision of the future summits God intends for you in your family life, workplace, church community and neighborhood. May this time equip you to see your entire life as ministry. Enjoy the week, enjoy the view and then leave the mountain to live as God's holy people. May God be your strength in the journey and conversations of everyday life.

Blessings,

Brady Bryce, Director of Ministry Events

Fate Hagood (Compton, Calif.) 092007-01

*God heard their groaning. God remembered
His covenant. (Exodus 2:24)*

8:30-9:30 P.M. LATE NIGHT EVENTS

● THE DAY AFTER TOMORROW

The Apocalyptic Voice is Alive in Contemporary Culture

8:30-9:30 p.m., Brown Library, Learning Commons

Stephen Johnson (Abilene, Texas) 092008-01

The apocalyptic voice is alive and well in contemporary culture – most commonly found not in pulpits but at the movies. Current apocalyptic films are nuclear, some biological, some ecological. All of them raise big questions about the world, human beings and the divine. This coffee house conversation explores the apocalyptic intersection of contemporary culture and Christian faith.

● THE WORD IN MOTION

8:30-9:30 p.m., WPA, Fulks Theatre

ACU Department of Theatre faculty and students

A theatrical exploration presented by faculty and students in the ACU Department of Theatre. Connect to God in a new way by witnessing His Word through storytelling and imagination in this dramatic presentation.

Start at Summit Headquarters in the Teague Center
Tour the new Hunter Welcome Center • Silently walk the Labyrinth

*"Along the path we find occasions to pause, to ponder the Word of God, to consider whence we came,
to meditate on where we now are,
to contemplate where we are going."*

— FROM THE DEDICATORY PLAQUE AT THE LABYRINTH

9-9:45 A.M. CLASSES: SESSION 1

● THE ART OF LEADING CONGREGATIONS FOR THE SAKE OF THE WORLD

Missional Leadership and Congregational Imagination

9-9:45 a.m., BSB 100 (Hart Auditorium)

Mark Lové (St. Paul, Minn.) 092101-01

Congregational leaders typically have a well-developed imagination for how the congregation exists for its members. In our changing cultural environment, leaders increasingly need to form an imagination for how the congregation exists for the sake of the world. Part 1 of 3.

● AN ENDURING LIFE IN PRAYER

Living in Constant Conversation with the Lord

9-9:45 a.m., BSB 103

Sharita Kyles Wilson (Columbia, Mo.) 092101-02

Throughout Exodus, Moses experienced an ongoing conversation with the Lord. This class explores ways we may experience ongoing intimate encounters with our Lord through prayer, meditation and self-examination. Part 1 of 2.

FOLLOWING JESUS INTO THE WORLD

Silencing the Stones

9-9:45 a.m., BSB 104

Sonny Guild (Abilene, Texas) 092101-03

In ACU's history, thousands of men and women have been prepared to announce the kingdom as they engage their world. Documentaries have been made of four teams following Jesus and engaging in cross-cultural ministry. Come and watch Christian communities being formed and flourishing around the world. Part 1 of 3.

ETERNAL LIFE IN THE WASTELAND

Getting Free of the Cult of "Me"

9-9:45 a.m., BSB 112

Marcus Brecheen (Keller, Texas) 092101-04

Pleasure afflicts people. Many drown along the journey in a sea of irrelevance, although they never miss church. How do we find the eternal kind of life promised by Jesus? Part 1 of 2.

SUPPORTING OTHERS THROUGH MENTORING

Mentoring Shattered Lives

9-9:45 a.m., BSB 113

Dominique Dor Rogers (Dallas, Texas) 092101-05

Many people today seek answers in all the wrong places. Beyond offering invitations to attend church, what can Christians do to reach their community? Mentoring allows Christians to make a difference in a hurting world. We have been trained by life and we are connected to the Healer. When they will not come, we must go to them. Part 1 of 3.

● INVOLVING GOD IN OUR DECISION MAKING

Discernment: Listening to God

9-9:45 a.m., BSB 114

Jackie L. Halstead (Abilene, Texas) 092101-06

As Christians, we want to make decisions that bring glory to God and further His kingdom. How does one involve God in the discernment process? St. Ignatius asked this question and offers some understanding through three practices of discernment. Part 1 of 3.

● EXODUS AND FILM

Caped Crusaders and Dark Knights:

Redemption in Popular Film

9-9:45 a.m., BSB 115

Brian Prewitt (Tucker, Ga.) 092101-07

Exodus reveals a picture of redemption. Popular culture explores the redemption themes of Exodus. These sessions view culture through film, asking how popular culture portrays redemption and the Exodus. These questions draw us to the heart of Exodus and into its formative value for life. Part 1 of 2.

● COLONIES OF HEAVEN THAT RE-ENVISION

CHURCH AT THE MARGINS

Another Way of Telling

9-9:45 a.m., BSB 117

Tod Brown (Midland, Texas) 092101-08

In these times of change, the church is discovering deep new opportunities for vibrant expression. Across North America, these faith communities present an alternative story about how life can be lived, and Christians are discovering how the news they bear is indeed good. Part 1 of 3.

Building Legend: BSB, Onstead-Packer Biblical Studies Building;
MCC, McCaleb Conference Center in the Hunter Welcome Center

Morning Prayers at Jacob's Dream with Brady Bryce
8 a.m. daily

● HAVE MERCY ON ME, A SINNER

When We Take the Easy Way in Worship Renewal, Don't be Surprised That We're Not Renewed

9-9:45 a.m., BSB 120

Jack Reese (Abilene, Texas).....092101-09

Worship renewal without confession leaves the church empty and sick. We are right to desire renewal, but it comes with a cost: owning up to our sinfulness and waving the white flag of surrender. With confession restored to its rightful place, the church is open to the kind of renewal only God can do, and that is renewal indeed. Part 1 of 2.

● HIRING TO GROW

Finding, Hiring and Keeping Effective Ministers

9-9:45 a.m., BSB 127

Jim Nutt (Denton, Texas).....092101-10

Growing churches hire differently than stagnant churches because they think differently. Thriving churches of all sizes, locations and worship styles share some core commonalities that impact hiring decisions and ultimately how they grow. Take these concepts home with you! Part 1 of 2.

● ANOTHER BRICK IN THE WALL

A Way Out of Our Dehumanizing Economies

9-9:45 a.m., BSB 128

Chris Benjamin (Fort Smith, Ark.).....092101-11

What are the forces that dehumanize our work? What are the powers that treat people like commodities? How are we complicit and how are we trapped in this broken system? The story of the Exodus proclaims that our calling is to worship God rather than make bricks. Part 1 of 2.

WHAT THE AMERICAN CHURCH CAN LEARN FROM THE AFRICAN CHURCH

9-9:45 a.m., BSB 129

Fred Asare (Fetteh, Ghana).....092101-12

More than 100 years ago, American missionaries began planting Churches of Christ in Africa. Since then, the African church has grown and matured. Today, African congregations outnumber American congregations and the African church continues to grow as the American church declines. What lessons may American churches learn from African churches? Part 1 of 3.

● DEBATING FOR GOD

The Campbell-Owen Debate

9-9:45 a.m., BSB 130

Richard J. Cherok (Cincinnati, Ohio).....092101-13

Alexander Campbell has been widely recognized as a Christian reformer and an advocate of Christian unity, but his role as an apologist has been forgotten. As a defender of the faith, Campbell's debates with Robert Owen and many other skeptics makes him the most significant Christian apologist of America's antebellum period. Part 1 of 2.

● IS GOD AMONG US OR NOT? LESSONS FROM EXODUS
Basket Babies and Burning Bushes: Exodus 1-4

9-9:45 a.m., BSB 200 (Chapel on the Hill)

Mark Hamilton (Abilene, Texas).....092101-14

Exodus begins with an enslaved, discouraged people separated from themselves and God. It ends with a covenant people, free and committed to meaningful life. This transformation happens because God intervenes to free people from slavery and to help them imagine themselves as committed and significant people. Their story is a paradigm for our story. Part 1 of 3.

SHARING YOUR FAITH WITHOUT SCARING THEM OFF
Why Do They Hate Us?

9-9:45 a.m., BSB 249

Gordon Dabbs (Dallas, Texas).....092101-15

In a culture increasingly skeptical of Christians but open to Christ, we need new ways to share our faith story. Gordon presents challenging and practical lessons on contemporary evangelism through his unique background as a Ph.D. in philosophy and veteran missionary. Part 1 of 3.

ABE THE VISIONARY

Leadership Insights from the Life of Abraham

9-9:45 a.m., BSB 250

David Duncan (Houston, Texas).....092101-16

Great leaders are developed by their response to difficult situations. God may be using difficult moments to mold you for greatness.

● JESUS FEAST: SPIRITUALITY FOR THE HUNGRY
Spiritual Anorexia

9-9:45 a.m., MCC C (Hunter Welcome Center)

Joshua Graves (Rochester Hills, Mich.) 092101-17

Based on Graves' book, Jesus Feast (Leafwood, 2009), this class explores how to follow the teachings of Jesus in a pluralistic world. Sacred words such as grace, forgiveness, salvation, hospitality and gospel need to be re-imagined for our culture. Part 1 of 3.

HAVE WE UNDERSTOOD BAPTISM CORRECTLY?
What Was Distinctive About Christian Baptism?

9-9:45 a.m., Teague Special Events Center

Everett Ferguson (Abilene, Texas) 092101-18

The doctrine and practice of baptism are set against the background of Greco-Roman and Jewish religious washings. This class examines the literary and archaeological evidence of early Christianity in relation to New Testament texts. Part 1 of 3.

10-10:45 A.M. CLASSES: SESSION 2

● A COMMUNITY WITHOUT BARRIERS

This class explores the roles of women in Jesus' ministry and the early church, and the challenges of interpreting the scriptures and applying them to the life of Christians today. Part 1 of 3.

● FLYING FAITH
"Nonstop" Christianity in the Business World

10-10:45 p.m., BSB 103

Katie Coldwell (Dallas, Texas) 092102-02

What does it mean to be a Christian in today's marketplace? How does the commission to "go into all the world" extend into the boardroom? Can business strategies mirror biblical philosophies? Hear how Southwest Airlines' stories of LUV are stories of love. Part 1 of 2.

● WHAT'S THAT ON YOUR FOREHEAD?
Discovering the Richness of the Christian Calendar

10-10:45 a.m., BSB 104

Naomi Walters (Abilene, Texas) 092102-03

What is the Christian calendar? How can we engage it as a tool for spiritual growth? This session offers ways the liturgical year can shape the spirituality of both individuals and communities of faith.

RE-ENVISIONING CORE COMMUNITY

10-10:45 a.m., BSB 112

Reg Cox (Lakewood, Colo.) 092102-04

Christians face myriad pressures, making church attendance difficult. Commutes, family activities, church style preferences and the hunt for affordable housing have spread members out. Come learn a new strategy and reason for small groups that capitalizes on these challenges and turns them into assets. Part 1 of 2.

UTILIZING EVIDENCE-BASED CHRISTIANITY
TO NAVIGATE THE MAZE OF LIFE

10-10:45 a.m., BSB 113

Darrell Jordan (Abilene, Texas) 092102-05

This workshop utilizes evidence-based Christianity to critique ten commonly accepted wise sayings. One hundred individuals were surveyed to determine if the ten wise sayings were supported by biblical evidence. The results of the survey will be presented. Part 1 of 2.

● THE LOST HISTORY OF CHRISTIAN SPIRITUALITY:
DISCOVER THE SACRED IN THE ORDINARY
Sacred Things, Sacred Places

10-10:45 a.m., BSB 114

Darryl Tippens (Malibu, Calif.) 092102-06

Historian Philip Jenkins argues that Western Christians have lost half their history. Similarly, we have lost many of the spiritual practices known to our ancestors. It is time to reconsider the lesser-known disciplines that have transformed believers for 2,000 years. Part 1 of 2.

ON THE MOUNTAIN WITH GOD Discerning God's Will for Your Life and Church

10-10:45 a.m., BSB 115

Eric L. Wilson (Columbia, Mo.) 092102-07

We are called to be obedient to God's will, but how do we know what He desires of us? This class serves as a scriptural invitation to sit with God on the mountain and learn how to discern His will. Part 1 of 2.

● MULTI-RACIAL AND MULTI-GENERATIONAL FELLOWSHIP

Practicing the Presence of God in Your Ministry

10-10:45 a.m., BSB 117

Joe Almanza (Abilene, Texas) 092102-08

Every minister desires to seek and follow God's direction and will. Practicing the presence of God involves total dependence on God through prayer and listening to His voice. Does your church want to get to know your neighbors? Integrating begins by building relationships and continues with bridge-building into the community of faith. Part 1 of 2.

● HOW CAN WE SING THE LORD'S SONG?

Singing the Psalms Through the Ages

10-10:45 a.m., BSB 120

R. Mark Shipp (Austin, Texas) 092102-09

The Psalms have always been a major source for the church's theology, vocabulary and practice of worship. We marginalize the Psalms, the fount of the church's worship theology, to our peril. But how can we sing the ancient Psalms in the contemporary church? Part 1 of 3.

TRAINING THE DEAF TO BE MISSIONARIES TO THE DEAF

10-10:45 a.m., BSB 122

Bob Anderson (Lubbock, Texas) 092102-10

How can deaf people "hear" the gospel? Is there a need all over the world? What are some advantages and disadvantages of training deaf people? What role, if any, can hearing people have in this task?

DARING TO DESPAIR Finding Hope in Lament

10-10:45 a.m., BSB 127

Aaron Metcalf (Beaverton, Ore.) 092102-11

What if lament does more than simply express pain? What if lament connects us with the God who created us in His image? This class explores suffering as part of God's nature and how being transformed into God's likeness means learning to lament as God does. In lament, people may find hope, joy and mission. Part 1 of 2.

● SEX TALK

Sexuality as Spiritual Formation for Post-Christian Teens

10-10:45 a.m., BSB 128

Jeff Brooks (Dallas, Texas) 092102-12

They're talking about it, seeing it on TV, clicking on it and they're doing it. But we aren't talking about it. This class covers the current state of teen sexuality inside and outside of the church culture and the biblical response. Part 1 of 2.

● THE SCARS OF MICHAEL JACKSON AND HEATH LEDGER

Experiencing a Spiritual Revolution Through the Arts

10-10:45 a.m., BSB 129

Steven T. Moore (Abilene, Texas) 092102-13

While Hollywood is never afraid to tackle controversial issues, Christians too often avoid getting involved with them. This class shows how the arts can inspire Christians to engage such challenging topics as racism, homosexuality and poverty. Part 1 of 2.

● THE GREAT COMMUNION OF 2009: HISTORY AND SIGNIFICANCE

10-10:45 a.m., BSB 130

Douglas A. Foster (Abilene, Texas) 092102-14

2009 is the 200th anniversary of the unity document that began the Campbell Movement: the "Declaration and Address" of Thomas Campbell. This year provides a unique opportunity to reclaim passion for the visible unity of Christ's followers. The Great Communion will take place in hundreds of locations across the world. How can you be involved?

● RECLAIMING THE IMAGINATION:
THE EXODUS AS PARADIGMATIC NARRATIVE
Remember the Midwives

10-10:45 a.m., BSB 200 (Chapel on the Hill)
David Fleer (Nashville, Tenn.),
Dave L. Bland (Memphis, Tenn.) 092102-15
This class offers perspectives on how the Exodus narrative continues to speak an important and powerful message to Christians today. Part 1 of 3.

●● FREEDOM'S MEAL
How Passover Became the Lord's Supper

10-10:45 a.m., BSB 249
Steven Dye (San Antonio, Texas) 092102-16
What if Christ intended more from the experience at His table? This class considers the historic connections between Passover and communion. By examining these roots, Christians may incorporate greater meaning and imagine more powerful practices of the Lord's Supper in our assemblies, small groups and homes. Part 1 of 2.

THE EXODUS THEN AND NOW
The Context of the Ten Commandments

10-10:45 a.m., BSB 250
Kilnam Cha (West Linn, Ore.) 092102-17
This class attempts to demonstrate the significance of the Exodus in its historical and canonical context, underscores the continuing role it plays in South Korea's democratization movement and discusses its implication for us today in this global age. Part 1 of 2.

● MORE PERSPECTIVES ON IMPROVING
ELDER-MINISTER RELATIONSHIPS
How They Can Be Partners, Not Problems

10-10:45 a.m., MCC C (Hunter Welcome Center)
Roland Orr (Abilene, Texas),
Charles Siburt (Abilene, Texas) 092102-18
The relationship between elders and ministers continues to be a source of tension and frustration in many churches. Two experienced church consultants offer perspective on the challenges complicating elder-minister relationships and provide practical suggestions for how these vital relationships can be collaborative instead of competitive.

● LIVING WELL IN A BROKEN WORLD
In the Workplace, How Can We Engage the World on its Terms and Still be Salt and Light?

10-10:45 a.m., Teague Special Events Center
Carlos Sepulveda (Dallas, Texas) 092102-19
Many students about to launch their careers have asked Carlos this question. If you're looking for no-nonsense answers and practical advice for being "in the world but not of the world," you'll want to hear Carlos share truths from God's Word that have guided him throughout his life, from struggling teenager to CEO and president of Interstate Battery.

● CHRISTIAN ETHICS IN A WORLD GONE CRAZY
What Makes Something Right or Wrong?

1:30-2:20 p.m., BSB 100 (Hart Auditorium)
Randy Harris (Abilene, Texas) 092104-01
In a culture where values seem as variable as the weather, how does the Christian navigate this strange world? Do objective right and wrong exist? How do I decide between competing ethical viewpoints? Part 1 of 3.

THE HEART OF A SHEPHERD
A Heart for God

1:30-2:20 p.m., MCC C (Hunter Welcome Center)
Lynn Anderson (San Antonio, Texas) 092104-02
A spiritual leader is "the kind of person that God-hungry people want to be like." What kind of heart does that take? After interacting with the leadership teams of some 2,300 churches and spending a lifetime reflecting on scripture, the presenter will share his understanding of that kind of heart. Part 1 of 3.

● YOUR IMAGE IS EVERYTHING
The Significance and Relevance of What It Means to be Made in God's Image

1:30-2:20 p.m., Teague Special Events Center
Chris Seidman (Dallas, Texas) 092104-03

The class explores the relationship between being made in the image of God and a variety of issues we deal with today: our search for identity, our exercise of power and authority, our hunger for community, our passion for the sanctity of life "from the womb to the tomb," and our understanding of salvation and what it is that Jesus came to restore. Part 1 of 3.

● AMERICAN IDOLS
Classifications of Contemporary Idols and Their Leverage Points in Your Life

3-3:45 p.m., Moody Coliseum
Carlos Sepulveda (Dallas, Texas) 092105-01

Idolatry is not about Baal and Asherah poles anymore, yet it is alive and thriving in America. Unbelievers are taken captive by idols today as they have been throughout history. However, believers are significantly compromised and neutralized by idols as well. Learn how to assess your own vulnerability to this sin.

4-4:45 P.M. CLASSES: SESSION 3

● RELATIONSHIPS THAT MATTER:
JESUS AND WOMEN OF THE GOSPEL
What Does This Say to the 21st Century?

4-4:45 p.m., BSB 100 (Hart Auditorium)
John O. York (Nashville, Tenn.),
Rhonda Lowry (Nashville, Tenn.) 092106-01

This class explores the Gospel stories of Jesus interacting with women to find antecedence for the church's reaction to gender-related issues in ministry. Part 1 of 3.

● FLYING FAITH
Make a Connection with Your Coworkers

4-4:45 p.m., BSB 103
Katie Coldwell (Dallas, Texas) 092106-02
 Part 2 of 2.

PEOPLE OF THE LATE AFTERNOON
Grace Living in the Church and the Community

4-4:45 p.m., BSB 104
David Allen (San Antonio, Texas) 092106-03
 Grace affects how we live and how we interact with our fellow Christians and our communities. It is the lens through which we view salvation, unity, outreach and cooperation. This class explores implications of living a life conditioned by grace.

● HEAR THE VOICE
Recapturing the Beauty of God's Story

4-4:45 p.m., BSB 112
Sean Palmer (Redwood City, Calif.) 092106-04
 "The Voice" Bible Project is a fresh expression of scripture. Stories told to emerging generations about God's goodness by grandparents and tribal leaders were assembled to form the scriptures. While passion, grit, humor and beauty is often lost in translation, "The Voice" gathers poets, pastors, scholars and storytellers to recapture what was lost. Part 1 of 2.

SEEING HIS GLORY AGAIN
When We Don't Have an Answer of Our Own (John 6)

4-4:45 p.m., BSB 113
Arthur Puente (Lubbock, Texas) 092106-05
 Two studies from the Gospel of John that encourage Christians to explore the meaning of trusting in Christ. These classes will challenge participants to once again see His glory, and in doing so, place their trust in Him. Part 1 of 2.

● DREAMWEAVERS

How Poor Burmese Refugees are Showing the Rich Work of God

4-4:45 p.m., BSB 115

Jessica Reese Goudeau (Austin, Texas) 092106-07

Hill Country Hill Tribers provides economic and educational development to women in Austin's Burmese refugee community. Come hear about the challenges faced and the lessons God has taught as we strive to help these artisans stay connected to their past and succeed in their new home.

● RESTORING ALEX AND BERT

The Possibility of Emerging Churches of Christ

4-4:45 p.m., BSB 117

Chris Flanders (Abilene, Texas) 092106-08

"Emerging." "Missional." What do these words mean? Simply trendy terms for "faithful" (how many would confess to being "anti-missional"?). In this moment of multiple definitions, we need an understanding of what these movements are and what they are not. Part 1 of 3.

● NURTURING CHILDREN'S SPIRITUALITY

Christian Perspectives and Best Practices

4-4:45 p.m., BSB 120

Holly Allen (Siloam Springs, Ark.) 092106-09

This class explores the unfolding concept of children's spirituality, examining definitions, biblical and theological foundations and current research. It briefly overviews 10 key ways to cultivate children's spiritual development, but focuses principally on three re-orienting and profound approaches for parents and churches to consider. Part 1 of 2.

WILLIAM GLADSTONE (1809-1898) AND THE CHRISTIAN FAITH

4-4:45 p.m., BSB 122

Jerry Rushford (Malibu, Calif.) 092106-19

This year marks the bicentennial of the birth of the four-time prime minister of Britain who was the greatest Christian statesman of his day. He attended morning and evening prayers daily and wrote books on theology. At his funeral in Westminster Abbey, he was remembered as "a great Christian man."

● REDEEMING THE D-WORD

Finding a Place for Doubt in the Walk of Faith

4-4:45 p.m., BSB 127

Wilson McCoy (Clarksville, Tenn.) 092106-10

Questioning can often be dismissed as a posture of faithlessness in the curving path of faith. However, might doubt stand at the center of what it means to be a faithful person of God?

● WHEN PRAYER MEETS JUSTICE
Cultivating a Church of Intercessors

4-4:45 p.m., BSB 128

Joshua L. Ross (Memphis, Tenn.) 092106-11

There is a marriage needed in local churches between prayer and justice. This union ushers us into the rhythm of Jesus. God longs to cultivate prayerful communities for the sake of the world. Part 1 of 2.

● WOMEN ARE FROM VENUS, MEN ARE FROM MARS
So, God, Why Did You Put Us on Planet Earth?

4-4:45 p.m., BSB 129

Anna Peters (Houston, Texas) 092106-12

A spirited message on the roles in typical male-female interactions. The Exodus shows us that gender roles have changed little over the centuries, and also shows us what we can learn, especially as young adults, to create happier relationships for ourselves: romantic, platonic, spiritual, professional.

Thomas Campbell in Ireland: Ecumenical Overture

4-4:45 p.m., BSB 130

Hans J. Rollmann (St. John's, Newfoundland, Canada),
Thomas H. Olbricht (South Berwick, Maine) 092106-13

In 1809, Thomas Campbell produced a document that has cast a long shadow over the Stone-Campbell Movement. He proposed the theme "the quest for Christian unity, peace, and purity." We will comment upon the literary composition and religious soils of this influential agenda, especially in Pennsylvania and Ireland, as reflected in recent literature; the role of scripture and its interpretation in accomplishing Campbell's goals; the eschatological unfolding of his vision; and important theological assumptions. Part 1 of 3.

● EXODUS AS PARADIGMATIC TEXT FOR THE AFRICAN-AMERICAN COMMUNITY

4-4:45 p.m., BSB 200 (Chapel on the Hill)

Cleo LaRue (Princeton, N.J.) 092106-14

The Exodus story of the faithful journeying under the guidance and protection of God has great appeal to people battling forces beyond their control. This seminar explores some of the grand themes of the Exodus – suffering, hope, providence, liberation, struggle and survival – and their implications for preaching in the 21st century. Part 1 of 2.

● GOD'S DEMAND FOR SOCIAL JUSTICE

"I Will Surely Hear Their Cry"

4-4:45 p.m., BSB 249

The mission of Eternal Threads is dedicated to improving the lives of women and children most at risk of extreme poverty, trafficking and other forms of exploitation by providing sustainable livelihoods through income-generating projects. Part 1 of 2.

BUILDING A LEADERSHIP BRAND THAT MATTERS Leadership with Power to Change What Counts

4-4:45 p.m., BSB 250

Rick Lytle (Abilene, Texas) 092106-16

Lytle's recent research and 20 years of consultative experience reveal 12 key factors that connect the power of heaven with timeless leadership strategies. The same leadership strategies that enabled Abraham, Moses, David, Esther, Mary and Paul to reach greatness in God are applied to the dynamic challenges of church, home and global marketplace. Part 1 of 2.

● EVERYDAY EVIL: GOOD PEOPLE AND EVIL DEEDS

The Eichmann Effect and What Churches Can Do About It

4-4:45 p.m., MCC C (Hunter Welcome Center)

Richard Beck (Abilene, Texas) 092106-17

Why do good people do evil things? We have answers to this question. Unfortunately, few churches are aware of the situational dynamics that cause moral failure, both individually and collectively. Part 1 of 2.

MOUNTAIN PEAK EXPERIENCES WITH GOD

Understanding God and Experiencing Grace

4-4:45 p.m., Teague Special Events Center

Ian Fair (Durango, Colo.) 092106-18

Too often we live on the fringes of Christian fulfillment. Legalism creeps into church life and overshadows true fellowship. The mountaintop experiences we will explore seek to understand the character of God and the true meaning of Christian unity. Part 1 of 2.

Church People are Not the Only Ones with God Stories

8:30-9:15 a.m., BSB 128

John Siburt (Richardson, Texas) 092201-11

Christians view the mouth as the primary body part for evangelism. What if sharing Christ has more to do with the ears? Perhaps evangelism is less about proclaiming Christ into spaces where we presume He is absent and more about listening for how He is already near. Explore the art of spiritual conversation and learn how to share Christ with your ears. Part 1 of 2.

● A MILLION MILES IN A THOUSAND YEARS

3-3:45 p.m., Moody Coliseum
Donald Miller

Morning after morning, we get up to the same routine, the same job, the same chores, only to go to bed and repeat it all the next day ... the next week ... the next month. What would it be like to live the epic adventures we see in the movies? Donald Miller shares the principles used by good storytellers and how the power of storytelling in the Bible teaches significance and purpose. In his trademark humorous and personal style, Miller challenges listeners to become the heroes of their own stories and make their lives count.

4-4:45 P.M. CLASSES: SESSION 3

● RELATIONSHIPS THAT MATTER: JESUS AND WOMEN OF THE GOSPEL What Does This Say to the 21st Century?

DR. SAMUEL JOHNSON (1709-1784)
AND THE CHRISTIAN FAITH

4-4:45 p.m., BSB 130
 Jerry Rushford (Malibu, Calif.) 092306-10

This year marks the tricentennial of the birth of the greatest talker who ever lived and one of the most quotable men in history. He was a defender of the Christian faith and "the first moralist of the age." His English dictionary was a literary triumph, and his published prayers are classics of Christian devotion.

WHEN CHRISTIANS CONSCIENTIOUSLY DISAGREE
My Way or the Highway

4-4:45 p.m., BSB 249

TECHNOLOGY

The Summit conversation converges life and faith in Christ. Conversation occurs through a web of methods. In 2008 our "theme lecture" became our "theme conversation." Theme presenters were able to connect with the audience through questions sent via text message or email.

The virtual audience also grew dramatically as 5,000-7,000 additional people listened to online broadcasts of these conversations. New students with iPhones, cell phones, smart phones and computers sent questions to speakers. While amazing and fun, technology is not God. Technology facilitates our conversation and our community as we seek God always.

Summit is a conversation where life and faith converge in Christ. We intend for you to engage in honest, open conversations and then to leave Summit more committed to following Jesus. Use the new technology of "smart phones" and the ancient technology of "the table" to talk with others about the life of faith.

HISPANIC HERITAGE MONTH

America celebrates cultural diversity annually through the appreciation of our many cultures. Sept. 15 begins a 30-day celebration of the cultures of U.S. residents with roots from Spain, Mexico and the Spanish-speaking peoples of Central and South America. The first day of Hispanic Heritage Month aligns with the independence of five Latin countries: Costa Rica, El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras and Nicaragua. In addition, Mexico gained independence Sept. 16 and Chile on Sept. 18. Former U.S. President Lyndon B. Johnson, with the approval of Congress, began this as a weeklong observance in 1968 and in 1988 it was expanded to a month (from Sept. 15 - Oct. 15). ACU's Summit celebrates how men and women of all heritage find unity in Christ.

Entra la Plaza, Friday Evening September 25

Come celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month on Friday night with music and food in the ACU Mall area, thanks to Hispanos Unidos and the Students' Association.

ADDRESS SERVICE REQUESTED

The background of the entire page is a photograph of a majestic mountain range with snow-capped peaks and rugged, rocky terrain. The sky is filled with large, white clouds, and the lighting suggests a sunrise or sunset, with warm golden light illuminating the mountain's ridges. Overlaid on the lower half of the image is a large, white, ornate decorative element. It consists of swirling, vine-like patterns that frame the central text. The text 'ON THE MOUNTAIN WITH GOD' is written in a bold, blue, serif font. 'ON THE' is in a smaller size above 'MOUNTAIN'. 'WITH' is in a smaller size and underlined, positioned between 'MOUNTAIN' and 'GOD'.

ON THE MOUNTAIN WITH GOD

There are some who breathe in the beauty of nature from the valley. Others inhale the thin air and see life from the summit. A view of mountains and the view from the mountaintop both inspire the soul. The 2009 ACU Summit seeks to spark conversation about Exodus. You are invited to join the expedition through the ancient wilderness trails and to experience life with God on the mountain.

The descendants of God's promise felt abandoned to slavery in Egypt. God intended to use a deliverer who had fled from Egypt and from his people. On the mountain, Moses received his call to return, going back to Egypt and then back to the mountain to worship God. The conversations with God on the mountain established God's name, identified His people, pointed people into covenant promises and launched them back down the mountain and into the world.

Today, we may feel abandoned. Our leaders may feel confused about how to lead. However, on the mountain with God, we may again receive our calling to participate in the mission of God. Through our suffering and oppression, we may discover God's activity on the mountain and in the valleys of life. Out of our worship of God comes a renewal of our purpose. We are to be with God on the mountain in prayer, and with God in service for the good of the world.

Participants will explore seven mountain passages of Exodus in the theme conversations at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. Hundreds of class conversations will explore real-life ministry, led by experts, lay people, scholars, ministers and students. Three featured guest presenters will bring distinctive viewpoints from their life journeys. Come, talk and listen.
