MRS. SARAH L. BOSTICK

THE MISSIONARY ORGANIZATION EFFECTED IN ARKANSAS
BY MRS. SARAH L. BOSTICK.

The first beginning of this work was done by Elder S. W. Scott of Greenville, Texas. He organized one auxiliary at Pea Ridge Church with eleven members and five officers. President, Mrs. Sarah L. Bostick; Vice President, Mrs. Sindsey Huddleston; Secretary, Mrs. Mollie Bright; Assistant, Mrs. Ellen Brock; Treasurer, Mrs. Ann York. At this time all of those officers are dead except one.

In these beginnings we kept half of the money at home, which was $12.65, and sent the other half out of the State, to Paris, Ky., which was the amount of $12.65. We did not stop at 15 cents per month, but gave as we felt like giving, which was $25.30 per year from this one auxiliary. This money that was left at home was given to help support the evangelist on the field. In two or three conventions held this was the only auxiliary brought before the Convention by Mrs. S. L. Bostick. After the third year Mrs. Bostick began traveling over the State at her own expense. She organized an auxiliary at Sherrell, Ark., May 14th, 1899, with eight members, officers five. Mrs. Belle Ivy, President; Mrs. Mary Rice, Secretary and Treasurer. At this time we began sending our money out of the State to Miss Louis A. White of Indianapolis, Ind. Up until December 21st. After this we sent our money to Mrs. Helen E. Moses, the Corresponding Secretary, at Indianapolis. This year we sent $12.60 to her and $7.00 remained in the State. We sent as an offering to the Bible Choir funds $1.50 in Michigan. This year we paid for the evangelistic work in Arkansas $20.15, and $4.00 was paid for the Gospel Plea, as this was our first subscribers. Mrs. Bostick was paid $3.00 for her work. Total money raised this year was $41.25.

Auxiliary organized at Pettus, Ark., with eight members. President, Mrs. Minnie Pittmore; Secretary, Mrs. Lelia Ross. Organized December 1, 1899. October 25th, 1900, organized the auxiliary at Argenta with five members. President, Mrs. S. L. Bostick; Secretary, Mrs. Truthey Alexander; Treasurer, Mrs. Eliza Horn. After this an auxiliary was organized at Toltec, with ten members. President, Mrs. Lizzie Harris; Secretary, Mrs. Anna Facing. Organized November 1. And later in November, 26th, organized an auxiliary at Pine Bluff with eleven members. President, Miss Mary Lamb; Secretary, Miss Willie Conier. At this time we had six auxiliaries, and we held our first convention at the Wrightsville Church in 1901. Thirty-eight dollars was reported having been sent to headquarters and $5.00 kept in the State. Didn't but two of these auxiliaries hold their regular meetings on account of opposition against woman's work in the church. In 1902 Mrs. Bostick was appointed by the white sisters in Little Rock, with no definite salary, as organizer of the work.

Washington, Ark., August 1, 1902.

The State Convention convened with this church, Brown's Chapel.

Only three ladies were present at this Convention—Mrs. Mary Lamb, Mrs. Irene Smith and Mrs. S. L. Bostick. Each had a paper on missions.

After 1901 Mrs. Ellen Brock had the oversight of this work for eight years, up until her death. Our next Annual Convention convened with the Pea Ridge Church, August 13, 1903, and five auxiliaries represented at this church with $48.24.

Organizer's report: Days spent, 35; places visited, 9; number of auxiliaries, 7; auxiliaries organized, 1, and reorganized, 3; members, 98; miles traveled, 321; money received from the white sisters, $5.00; money received for the colored sisters, $5.00; total, $10.00; writing expenses, $1.50; railroad expenses, $9.63.

December, 1903, I visited the work at Parham and organized the work with 16 members, and they had $10.00 in the treasury, and we sent that in to headquarters. Miles to Louisiana, 400. From there I went to the State of Mississippi. I visited 6 churches and put those ladies in touch with the National work. They were doing work, but not National. I spent two weeks on this field; then I returned to my own field of labor, traveling 350 miles in my own State. Writing expense, $5.00. This money came by getting subscribers for the Gospel Plea, of which they gave me half of the money from each subscriber.

At a sacrifice I continued to go over the field. Our next Annual Convention was held August 12, 1904, at Blackton, Ark., and 7 auxiliaries represented in this Convention. Money raised for general fund, $64.46, and State funds, $8.00. We had 15 lady delegates at this Convention.

This was the year 1904. In 1905 the Convention convened with the Pea Ridge Church. In this Convention nine auxiliaries reported by Mrs. Ellen Brock. She reported to have raised $25.00 for general funds and $7.00 in treasury. This Convention reported having raised for both State and general funds $68.30. Miles traveled over the field in Arkansas and Texas, 976; places visited, 19; days spent, 48; organized one auxiliary at Clover Bend, Ark., and visited one auxiliary which was organized by Miss Roxie Sneed of Readland, Ark. Letters written, 125; cards, 23; writing expenses, $5.00. I reorganized one auxiliary in Texas and one in Arkansas. Places visited in Texas, 10, and held 3 Conferences there with the lady officers. Traveling expenses in the two States, $29.50. Received $30.00 in Texas for my work, and received from the white Board of Arkansas $5.00. This was the year of 1905.

The next Convention was held August 3, 1906, at Wrightsville Church. Report of the nine auxiliaries at this Convention, having raised $68.73, and 150 members at this time. We raised $20.00 cash in this Convention for State and $15.00 from the 5 cents dues. Total raised for State, $35.00. This $20.00 raised went for the general expenses and for the printing of minutes. All heretofore we had used this money for the same purpose. Raised for general fund, $33.73. This was the third visit that our President Lehman of the S. C. I. Miss. had made to us. His visits always meant so much to us. Our evangelist on the field was Rev. H. Martin, who did great work.

I can not close the history of this beginning of this Missionary Work without saying that my dear companion had a share in helping me to go. He always agreed for me to go to my Christian duties, when opportunity presented itself, and often gave helpful remarks in Convention. In 1874 came a great opportunity for the Christian woman in the churches to do something for humanity over the land and sea, to the utmost part of the world. We realized Phoebe, our mother in the gospel, made an appeal to all women to go after this missionary task, that the women must become helpers in the preaching of the gospel, and that this missionary effort should be handed down from generation to generation till every nation would know of our Christ Jesus.

My sisters and fellow workers, we are counting on you. For several years I have had the experience of a few things in Christian duties, and had to tread the wine press alone. We have tried to teach our churches wherever we went the missionary spirit and its purposes.

The Love of Christ Constraineth Us.

Those years of beginning in order to meet my Christian duties, as my husband was a farmer and cotton 3 and 5 cents, to add help financially, I sold books a year or two, taking in sewing, raised chickens and made garden, and always tried to make my own money for the church. Never missed but four missionary meetings in my life. My fare was paid once to the National Convention and once to the Conference. Was born in Monroe County, Ky., May 27, 1868. My parents' name was Mr. and Mrs. Alex Howard, a family of ten children, all members of the church but one. There were eight girls of us.
