Poem of the Week

Three Gates of Gold

"If you are tempted to reveal
A tale someone to you has told
About another, make it pass Before you speak, three gates of gold,

"Three narrow gates: First 'Is it true?'

Then 'Is it needful?' In your mind

Give truthful answers, and thenext
Is last and narrowest--'Is it kind?'

"And if to reach your lips at last
It passes through these gateways three,

Then you may tell the tale, nor fear

What the result of speech may be."

What Should Your Neighbors Expect
From You

Howard Norton

Since you are a member of Christ's body, your neighbors have a right to expect certain things from you.

Your neighbors have a right to expect you to be kind.

Your neighbors have a right to expect pure speech from you.

Your neighbors have a right to expect you to attend all services at God's house.

Your neighbors have a right to expect you to laugh only at things which are holy.

In a nutshell, your neighbors have a right to expect you to be holier and purer than are your non-Christian friends. How regrettable that often we do not live up to their expectations!

If we didn't know the truth wouldn't we want someone to tell us how to be saved so we wouldn't lose our souls? Have you told anyone about the meeting?

If we make religion our business, God will make it our blessedness.

Let's be Fair

X A church member said, "If I had ten thousand dollars, I'd gladly give half of it to the church." His friend said, "If you had ten pigs, would you give five of them to the church?"

The first replied, "That isn't fair. You know I have ten pigs."
