FREED-HARDEMAN COLLEGE

A Standard Junior College

HENDERSON, TENNESSEE

January 12, 1939

Mr. J. W. Shepherd

945 Douglas Avenue

Nashville, Tennessee

Dear Brother Shepherd:

Your kind letter of January 10 has been received. I appreciate the information that it brought me. It was very kind of you to write me, and I thank you for taking your valuable time to help me. I have looked at the reference and find it to be just what I was looking for.

May I say here that which I often feel but seldom say to you. I regard you as one of the best scholars in the brotherhood. I have confidence in your scholarship. You have been very kind to me in helping me on to a fuller knowledge of many important things, and I want you to know that I am very grateful to you.

We are having splendid attendance at the special courses. I am speaking three times a day to about one hundred twenty-five preachers. I hope that you and Sister Shepherd are well.

Yours fraternally,

H. Leo Boles

Ray, I have somewhere (haven't been able to locate it yet) such a good article clipped from the Advocate (I believe it's the Advocate) which Brother Boles wrote about

FREEDMAN COLLEGE

HENDERSON, TENNESSEE

January 11, 1893

Mr. J. E. Johnson

125 South 1st Avenue

Memphis, Tennessee

Dear Brother Johnson:

Your letter of January 11 has just received. I am glad to hear that you are interested in the work of the college and I think you will be very glad to hear that I have looked at the reference and that it is so good that I was looking for

it. I am sure that which I often feel but cannot say to you. I would be glad to see you at the college in the future. I have confidence in your judgment and have been very glad to see it. I believe you will be glad to hear that I have been very glad to see you and that I have been very glad to see you.

I am sure that you will be glad to see me.

I am sure that you will be glad to see me.

I am sure that you will be glad to see me.

Yours sincerely,

*Father before Father's death, which I want to send to you.
Hope I can find it soon.*
