About this collection

Title: Richard F. Baggett Papers, 1952

Creator: Richard F. Baggett

Identifier/Call Number: CRS MS #261

Physical Description: 1 folder

Dates (Inclusive): 1952

Dates (Bulk): 1952

Location: Center for Restoration Studies

Language of Materials: English

Scope and Content Note: This collection includes two reports from Richard F. Baggett, an American who was serving as a Churches of Christ missionary in Japan. Baggett mentions preaching in Japanese for the first time without the assistance of an interpreter, describes gospel meetings, discusses the presence of communists, and addresses accusations that those operating Ibaraki Christian College were premillennialists.

Biographical Note: Richard F. Baggett graduated from Harding College in 1949. Richard and his wife, Mary, served as missionaries in Japan from 1950-1955, and 1956-1958. The focus of their work was training native preachers, establishing churches, teaching Bible at Ibaraki Christian College, and holding gospel meetings. The Baggetts were financially supported by the Coleman Avenue Church of Christ (Memphis, Tennessee), and the Union Avenue Church of Christ (Memphis, Tennessee).
