TO WHOM THIS MAY COME:

This statement is to set forth my knowledge of, and connection with the Oakland Church of Christ, as it is known in the Annual Directory of the Churches of Christ, published by the F. L. Rowe Publishing Company, which Church meets on the corner of Louisa and McKee Place, in the Oakland District, of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

As a Minister of the Church of Christ, I first became personally acquainted with the Oakland Church of Christ in October, 1934 and have preached for them on various occasions since that time, having served as their regular Minister from February, 1939, to August, 1940, when I resigned my position with them to accept the ministry of the Church of Christ at Monahans, Texas, where I am now located. So far as my knowledge is concerned, the Oakland Church of Christ has always confined its activities to religious practices to the exclusion of anything else.
