Dear Bro. Shepherd:

Miss Addie would like to have you come and hold that meeting here, but she cannot get her money to pay you at that time, she fears. Her money is in her brother's business and he will be close for cash till the cotton gets into the Market. But one thing is certain, when she gets the money, she will not forget you. She is big hearted and appreciative.

I will see, if God will, that your traveling expenses are paid. I will get enough money to you or Miss Addie for that, if God will, by the time the meeting comes on. She will do what she can at the time.

The meeting ought to begin on the 21st or 28th of July, or on the 4th of August. The meeting would perhaps not last longer than two weeks. The people have not been trained to long meetings.

Let me hear from you about it at once.

Address me at Waco, <sup>Tex.</sup> Texas.

With kindest regards to Sister Shepherd and the Children, I remain affectionately
Your brother,

J. A. Harding.
