Nashville, Tenn., Feb. 21, 1899.

Dear Bro. Shepherd:

Yours of the 4th inst.

was most welcome. I had sent, or thought I had, twenty copies of The Way to you at Irvine. Your father also is on our mailing list.

Would have answered sooner, but have been very much pressed for time.

The MSS. for the Feb. No. of The Way is now in the hand of the printer. We hope to mail the last of this week, or the first of next at the latest.

Many very nice words have been spoken about the paper, and enough money to run it has been coming in.

I look forward with pleasure to your help, and hope the paper will soon pay enough to enable you to give the time to it that is necessary.

I also am glad that Bro. D. is in no wise connected with the work,

It is far better as it is.

I have not yet got matters straight at the post office, but hope to have them all right-soon.

I will send papers to you at Forestville, Cal., unless you direct me differently, before mailing time.

Sincerely your mother,
J. A. Harding.
