February 6, 1912.

Dear Brother Larrimore:

Was glad to hear you were coming by the 14-17 inst., and trust that you can make the connections O. K. by that time. You should come by the Atlantic Coast Line from Jacksonville, if possible, as it puts you off up town. The S. A. L. Depot is about one half mile from us.

We shall expect you to make your home with us while you are here in Florida this time. We have an open fire place, also plenty of pine wood to burn when it is cool. Brother Bowers lives near us. We will be so glad to have you and Sister Larrimore with us.

I am glad to say Brother Perry is getting better. He will be delighted to see you.

Awaiting your arrival, I remain,

Sincerely & Fraternaly,
