JACKSONVILLE, FLA. February 8th, 1913.

Mr. B. R. Colson, Secretary,
Trustees Dixieland College,
Gainesville, Florida.

Dear Brother Colson:-

I am obliged to report to you that I have exhausted every possible chance that I had in sight for floating the loan required for your project, and am writing to say that I do not wish you to entirely depend on me to secure same, as you may have other opportunities of securing same. I will keep on trying, until I hear that you have raised the money you set out to get.

With best wishes, and trusting everything will move along successfully, I remain,

Yours very sincerely,

J. McGehee Whitehead
