Mr. B.R. Bolson,

Gainesville, Fla.

Dear Bro. in Christ:-

There is a movement in South Florida to start a Bible school on a small place, and I am requested to aid in that work, by teaching.

I have inquired at the "other end" to know if this would conflict with the great and grand effort that you good brethren at Gainesville are progressing so well with? What do you think of it? It is not my desire to engage in a work that would conflict the work at Gainesville, because I sincerely think that town is an ideal location for such an institution.

Your sentiments are desired, and as soon as convenient, as I must soon decide whether I shall remain here, or go elsewhere.

Fraternally,

J. G. Malphurs.
