Henderson, Tenn., April 6, 1915.

Dear Brother Colson:-

I want to get a map of Gainesville- a small map - showing North Gainesville, on which I can mark the location of our lot there. Please mark the names of the streets that cross at the corner of our lot and Dixieland Park. I'd like the map to show the entire city; but, if you have no such map for gratuitous distribution, please send me such as you have including all of North Gainesville, designating the names of the streets mentioned above. I'd like to have also ~~any~~ literature descriptive of Gainesville. I shall greatly appreciate your sending me such map and literature, or handing this letter to some one who will do so.

I've just received a good letter from Pansy. I appreciate her letters very much. They are original and interesting. She told me about the birthday dinner for Brother Bowers and little Frances, and said they had my picture taken. So I'm expecting a picture of the "home-folks".

This is a regular Florida day- bright, balmy, just warm enough to be pleasant and altogether delightful.

While we are contemplating the sale of our little Gainesville lot, Mr. Larimore says he has not forgotten that Brother Bowers requested him to give him (Brother Bowers) to buy the lot back, ^{a chance} provided Mr. Larimore ever decided to sell it. So, before sale is made, we will notify Brother Bowers, if he so desires.

With much love to all the friends there- especially "the family"-
I am, as ever, your friend,

Emma P. Larimore.

P. S. Did you ever hear from W. R. Chambers, the Nashville man who was interested in Florida property?
