February 27, 1912.

Mr. C. E. Allen,
Inverness, Florida.

Dear Brother Allen:

Your card of the 26th is received, and I was glad to hear from you. I do not think it will be necessary for you to come up here any time soon, as it will doubtless be inconvenient for you to be coming unless absolutely necessary. I will let you know when to come as I do not want to put you to any more trouble than I am obliged to in this matter.

I want you to understand, of course, that I will be glad to have you come at any time you can, but do not put yourself to any extra inconvenience to come until I advise you.

With best wishes,

Yours fraternally,

Dictated B.R.C.
