Dear Brother Colson:-

I inclose herewith one page of a letter from Mr. Larimore, to which is pinned the first subscription, I presume, to Our Florida Friend. I hope our paper will start off all right, and I believe it will do so.

Mr. Larimore has written me that he sent you a letter I wrote him, in which I made rather free use of your given name. He so often calls you "Barney" that I sometimes refer to you that way when speaking or writing him.

Your bright, hopeful letters do Mr. Larimore a great deal of good; and I'm always glad when they come. He is in most excellent spirits, and is anxious, I believe, for the time to come when we will go to Gainesville.

I want to get some propositions regarding our book from Brother McQuiddy next week and submit them to you.

With love and best wishes to all, I am

Your friend,

Emma P. Larimore.
