

LORGNETTE

Quarterly Review of Children's and Young Adults' Books

Author

Smith, Elliott

Illustrator

Illustrated by Subi Bosa

Reviewer

Fine, Jewell

Pages

31p

Price

$29.32

ISBN

978-1-7284-7615-5

Publisher & Date

Lerner, 2023

Classification

Fiction

Grade level

1-3

Book Review: BO AND THE SPOOKY HOUSE

Bo and his friends are playing in the neighborhood on a Saturday morning. They come upon an old house that everyone says is haunted. Bo's friends dare him to ring the doorbell. He goes up and rings the doorbell but gets scared and runs home. Bo's grandpa knows who lives in the house and tells him that it's not haunted. A sweet little old lady lives in the house. Will Bo and his friends discover that the house isn't haunted and the lady that lives there isn't scary but lonely?

This is a good book for beginning readers. The illustrations are bold and colorful and keep the reader interested.

