Jamesville, March 22/65.

Dear Brother Sami,

The Da. is away but I can act as his agent, so I send you the desired paper. When are you going to bring that baby to see me? I would have gone to see her long ago if I could. Mr. Parker says she is a beautiful babe. He thinks too she is like her mother. Sami tells me both mother and daughter are able to come down stairs. I was so glad to hear it. Now do come to see us as soon as you can bring the baby. I mean you and Eddie Sue. In a hurry, Goodbye!
Yours Sister in Christ,
Warkin Ann Parker.

Dear Brother Barnie,
The Dr. is away but I can act as his agent, so I send you the desired paper.
When are you going to bring that baby to see me? I would have gone to see her long ago if I could. Mr. Parker says she is a beautiful babe. He thinks too she is like her mother. Lannie tells me both mother and daughter are able to come down stairs I was so glad to hear it. Now do come to see us as soon as you can bring the baby.
I mean you and Eddie Sue
In a hurry, Goodbye!
Your sister in Christ
