Dear Willie

Your letter was Received some time ago was truly glad to know that you had another boy at your home. This looks us very well, will be up with the work in about two weeks so I can leave about two months, would be glad to go to Seattle if I can get something to do. I owe Borney $20<sup>00</sup> I'd like that Glenn made want to pay that, you and Borney keep me out in

Dear Willis

Your letter was received some time ago. Was truly glad to know that you had another boy at your home. This leaves us very well. Will be up with the work in about two weeks so I can leave about two months. Would be glad to go to Gville if I can get something to do. I owe Barney $20.00 a debt that Glenn made...to pay that. You and Barney keep me...in getting something to do such as overseeing a town or some office work with the Tax Collector assessor and I will gladly go and tell it, how is Perry getting along, I am not taking any stock in Politics would be glad to keep you in any way I could. Remember me to Mr. Carlson and the children yours

I send

T J Prevatt,

getting something to do such as overseeing...or same office work with the Tax Call or assessor and I will gladly go and take it. How is...getting along. I am not taking any stock in Politicks. Would be glad to keep you in any way I could. Remember me to Mrs. Calson and the children. Your friend

T. J. Prevatt.
