My Dear Sir: Your last letter regarding the $50,000 loan has been attended to, on my return to the City from a business trip and I desire to state that it is a difficult matter to, in fact after my canvass an impossibility to secure the $50,000 here on the property in question. My experience in the East leads me to believe that the amount you desire can be obtained in New York Philadelphia or Boston and I believe you will waste your time in trying to get it elsewhere, I am tied down to the work here but I would secure an absence

My Dear Sir,

Your last letter regarding the $50,000 loan has been attended to on my return to the city from a business trip and I desire to state that it is a difficult matter & in fact after my canvass an impossibility to secure the $50,000 here on the property in question. My experience in the east leads me to believe that the amount you desire can be obtained in New York, Philadelphia, or Boston and I believe you will waste your time in trying to get it elsewhere. I am tied down to the work here but I would secure and absence of loan if necessary and make a trip in your behalf if you care to, to float your desired loan.

 All expenses and outlay to a trip of this kind would have to be borne by you and your associates if any. In addition to this expense which ought not to exceed $200.00 I would expect one half of one percent commission on the amount of money you desire.
 I am going to my farm at the end of this week and if you will address your reply as indicated herewith I will receive your letter promptly. Very truly yours
