My Dear Brother Colson:-

<Find enclosed "Testamentary letter": Well, I am glad after all of the worry and delays that we have got everything straight at last,

Many thanks to you for your kindness and patience, and firm reality. Do sincerely hope you are well ere this.

I will enclose you a brief report of a sermon I preached in Sylvania sometime ago. It was published in the initial number of our new state paper. Read it carefully. Love to you all,

Faithfully yours, W. E. Dougherty
