May 3, 1912.

Mr. T. J. Prevatt,
Largo, Florida.

Dear Brother Prevatt:

Well, the election is over, and Willis got left, but I guess he will fight four years from now, and maybe then he will get elected. I do not think Mr. Wienges will run any more.

In reference to the amount that Glynn owes me, which is $20.00. If you can conveniently do so, I would certainly appreciate it if you would send me your check for this amount, as I have had, and am having considerable expense, and need all the money that I have. I hate to bother you about this matter, but I am not really able to be carrying accounts of this kind, and I let him have the money in the best of faith feeling sure that he would pay it, and I was also confident of the fact that if he did not, that you would not let me lose it. It has been about a year now, since this happened and I feel that the matter should be straightened up as soon as possible. I hope that the boy is doing better than he was.

Yours sincerely,
