NASHVILLE, TENN. Dec. 12, 1912.

Mrs. Emma P. Larimore,
Gainesville, Fla.

Dear Sister Larimore:

Cost of work has advanced considerably within two years. Our cost ticket showed $5.50 on your job. We gave special time and attention to the job and regret you feel that it is high.

If charging $7.00, however, places you in a bad light with Bro. D. R. Colson, we will be glad to do anything that we can to help you out of the difficulty.

I hope you are both healthy in your Florida home, and that your work is prospering to your satisfaction.

Yours very truly,

McQuiddy Printing Company
