THIS LETTER FROM

Coal Hill, Ark.

Dec. 15 1912

Dear Bro. Larimore:

Your letter of the 5th inst. received. Glad, indeed, to hear from you. I would certainly be pleased to attend the school, take lessons etc.

To be plain with you, I am a very poor man financially. I have to support my wife and baby.

You ask what I would expect out of the school.

I would have to receive enough to support myself and family, as that is my only means of support. I must state again, as I did in my first letter to you, that I know nothing whatever about teaching in a college. I can conduct Normal Schools, primary schools, institutes, etc. but as to teaching in a college, I would surely have it all to learn.

Now, as to coming out there this winter, I can arrange to come the first of March. My terms for teaching an eighteen days Normal is $100.00.

I teach 6 days in a week, every day a teaching day except Sunday. I have no idea what the expense would be in making a trip out there. So I will say this, that I will come and teach an 18 days session for $50.00 and my expenses there and back.

So if you want me to come on these terms, I will gladly do so. THIS LETTER FROM It would be a bout five weeks of my time. It will take nearly a week to go and nearly a week to come back, the school continue three weeks. If I could go out there and see the place, see you and talk the situation over, I could understand it better, and know more about the terms I could afford to make. So if you want me to come, I'll come for $50 and my expenses. I can come the first of March.

I will be pleased to hear from you at your earliest convenient time.

I beg to remain your brother in the same faith.
