

LORGNETTE

Quarterly Review of Children's and Young Adults' Books

Author

Capucilli, Alyssa Satin

Illustrator

Illustrated by Gladys Jose

Reviewer

Conoly, Sandy

Pages

Unpaged

Price

$18.99

ISBN

978-1-5344-7707-0

Publisher & Date

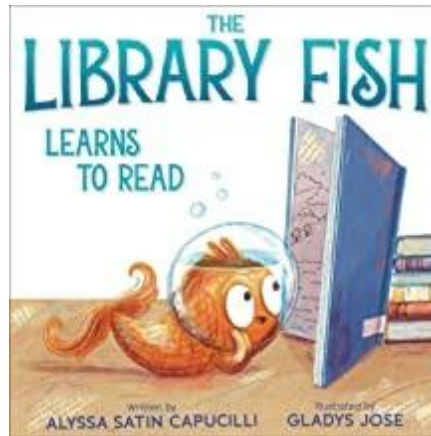

Paula Wiseman/Simon & Schuster, 2023

Classification

Fiction

Grade level

Preschool-3

Book Review: LIBRARY FISH LEARNS TO READ, THE

The little fish that could! As young readers start with their ABCs, sound blends, and picture clues, Library Fish learns to read--fun teachable moments for littles in this colorful picture book. The story is inspirational to motivate littles to explore a library and, most importantly—to READ! Little Library Fish will encourage beginning readers to be curious and build their reading skills. Library Fish continues the learning process by building on reading skills to help others through storytelling and finding joy in reading.

Heart of Texas Literature
Center

Children's and Young Adults' Books