BROADWAY AND NINTH AVENUE

Dec. 19th., 1912

Mrs. Emma P. Larimore,
Gainesville, Fla.

Dear Madam:-

We enclose herewith bill for manufacture of "Our Corner Book", together with bill for expressage, postage, etc., on the copies sent out on your order.

We also enclose bill of lading for shipment of the books we sent to you by freight.

For your reference we give you as follows a record of the disposals of the book:

45 by express to different addresses	12/7
70 by mail to various addresses	12/7&11
40 by express to author	12/10
745 shipped by freight to author	12/11
100 held for instructions -
1000

In a letter of recent date to Mr. Kilvington you asked that we sell as many of the 100 copies left with us as we can and we have placed the book in the front of the store. You fail, however, to give the price of the book which is an important item. Please let us know at once at what price you wish it sold, and oblige,

Very truly yours,

Smith & Lamar, Agts.

In a letter of recent date to Mr. Livingston you asked that we sell as many of the 100 copies left with us as we can and we have placed the book in the front of the store.
 You fail, however, to give the price of the book which is an important item. Please let us know at once at what price you wish it sold, and oblige,

Very truly yours,

Smith & Loring, Agents.
