

LORGNETTE

Quarterly Review of Children's and Young Adults' Books

Author

Ashman, Linda

Illustrator

Illustrated by Karen Obuhanych

Reviewer

Medina, Maria

Pages

Unpaged

Price

$18.99

ISBN

978-1-5344-9453-4

Publisher & Date

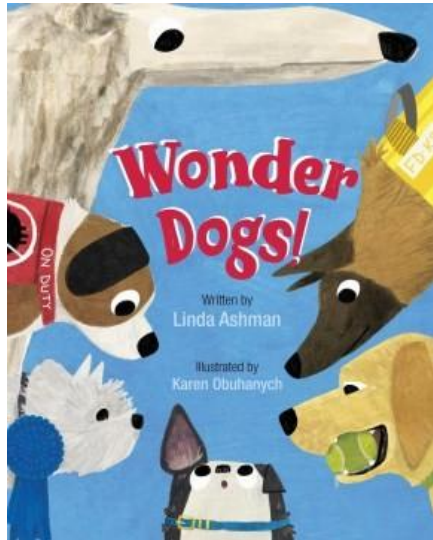

Atheneum Books, 2023

Classification

Fiction

Grade Level

PreK-2

Book Review: WONDER DOGS!

A little dog admires the way dogs are talented. He explains how these wonder dogs help the community by being search and rescue dogs. The illustrations portray the different activities these dogs do for their particular jobs. Wonder dogs are also ordinary pets that fetch, chase, and play with their owners. Other dogs help on the farm, guard property, or help disabled children. Some dogs compete in sports or are champion show dogs. This little dog doesn't do any of these wonderful things, but he does something very special. He belongs to a little girl who does not mind that he chews her shoe or eats her snacks but instead gives her unconditional love. This is an informative and sweet story that will captivate students as a read-aloud or a book for independent reading.

