

LORGNETTE

Quarterly Review of Children's and Young Adults' Books

Author

Charlton-Trujillo, e.E. and Pat
Zietlow Miller

Illustrator

Illustrated by Joe Cepeda

Reviewer

Medina, Maria

Pages

Unpaged

Price

$17.99

ISBN

978-1-5362-0955-6

Publisher & Date

Candlewick, 2023

Classification

Fiction

Grade Level

PreK-2

Book Review: LUPE LOPEZ READING ROCK STAR!

Lupe Lopez has a reputation for being awesome. After all, she created a band in kindergarten! She now faces a new challenge that many readers face: the struggle to read. Just when Lupe is on the verge of giving up, her teacher shows her how reading is like music. Lupe faces the challenge of learning and sees the beauty of words. Though it isn't always easy, she doesn't give up. All readers may see themselves in this lovely characterization of having talents in one area while not so much in another, especially reading. The book incorporates the culture of a multilingual learner, specifically Hispanic/Latino, in a fun and colorful way. A must-read for all emergent readers.

