WHAT OTHERS SAY

Prof. W. W. Slater has just closed a session of the Eureka Normal School of Music here. As managers, we paid him $100.00 for the eighteen days term. We have asked him to teach us another term at an increase in salary. We consider him one of the ablest music teachers we have met and take pleasure in recommending him to any community desiring his services.

Very Respectfully,

E. L. Ussery, G. W. Briggs, W. W. Watson and G. M. Caruthers
Salem, Fulton County, Arkansas. June 27th 1912.
