Our poor brother,

Jesse A. Gray,
T. Towne, Tennessee, voluntarily sends his $1⁰⁰ William, —

to pay

Our Florida Friend.

One year, beginning with the beginning, he promising to be, and wishing to be considered a lifetime subscriber.

He says he takes the Advocate to get the Corner, and would not take it if the Corner were not there. Over.

You can pass the $ on to Brother Bonney,
and tell him we'll try to pick up another $ for Our Florida Friend sometime
"Maybe."

I didn't try to pick up this one.
I deem it best to not say much about Our paper till we launch Our labour - About Oct. 1/1812.

Then
and thereafter we'll make things run sure - run sure,
too.

Our Florida enterprise is sure to be a signal success in every sense - especially and primarily the Real Estate feature of it. There's a fortune in that;
but we covet neither Gold nor Glory. I merely mentioned Our paper to Brother Gray, because he was so enthusiastic about the Cause - "I have here's a $ for that, Right Now."

U can pass the $ on to Brother Barney
and tell him we'll try to pick up another $ for Our Florida Friend sometime -
"_Maybe_"
I didn't _try_ to pick up this one.
I deem it best to not say much about
Our paper till we launch our boom - about Oct of 1912
then ant thereafter we'll make things hum some - hum _sum_
too
Our Florida enterprise is _sure_ to bi a signal success in _every_ sense - especially and primarily the Real Estate feature of it. There's a fortune in that;
but we covet neither gold nor glory. I merely mentioned our paper to Brother Gray, because he was so enthusiastic about the Corner - & he said:
here's a $ for that right now."
