Mrs. Emma P. Larimore,
Gainesville, Fla.

Dear Mrs. Larimore:

Your letter of the 2nd inst. asking an explanation of two items on statement, received.

The item of $14.93, editor's changes, is not excessive, as it was for changes made in the proof from copy - the copy being followed as closely as possible. There were something over 24 pages of actual typesetting in changes. Of course this matter had to be handled throughout the book.

The second item of $58.00 for engravings, should read "25 engravings @ 12½¢ per inch, $51.98" - (one engraving was canceled, if you remember) "extra, 4 engravings, presswork and paper, $6.02."

Mr. McFerrin combined the last two items for want of space on statement.

Cuts are charged by base measurement, so allow, in measuring, about 1/8 inch all round cut for tacks.

I trust the above will make clear the statement, and that you are having a big sale on your book.

Yours truly,

C. B. Kilvington

P.S. - The original estimate was on 208 pages and 20 cuts.
