Feb. 7, 1913.

Mrs. M. S. Howard.

Dade City, Fla.

Dear Sister Howard:-

I acknowledge receipt of yours of the 4th inst.. in reference to Bro. Beeler, and would state that I have written to him and hope that he will be sufficiently interested to come to Florida and make his home with us.

I also investigated the matter in reference to J. S. Sparkman's paper, and see no reason why he has not received it as his name is on our list properly; but to be sure that he is satisfied we have sent him all the copies of the paper which he should receive.

We would like very much to have your family move here; let us know when we may expect you. Brother Hoover was here this week, and seemed to be very favorably impressed with Dixieland.

Yours sincerely;
