Dear Bro Colson

Your kind letter came to hand and I have read it with some delight as I learn from it that in the matter of our School that things are getting in a good shape, And I will want to buy some of the property but I want to see the situation before I promise and it will not be convenient for me to come to Gainesville before the first monday in july but the first day that I can get off after then I will come up and look the situation over Since I saw you I have entered the Banking business we have organized a Bank here of $25000 00 and will begin buisness by the first of October, and it is quite difficult for me to ^{get} off any time, however I will try to let you know a few days before I come so that you will be there, Hoping that your Bro, is very much improved in health, and all is well,

Best wishes for you and family

Faternally
