OFFICE OF
CHAS. E. ALLEN
TAX COLLECTOR CITRUS COUNTY, FLORIDA.

Inverness Fla. July 18th, 1912,

Dear Bro, Colson

Gainesville Fla.

Your letter received and I intended to have come to Gainesville about the first of the month but have been so very buissy that it was imposible for ne to leave and I will try to come on the 27th, if not will be up on the Sunday morning Train, of the 28th,

I expect that if you have your arrangements made to show Bro Hover the land and proposition on the 27th it would be better for me to come if posable on that date,

I am very much interested in the work that is being planed, not from the financial point of view, but the great good that it will do in shapeing the lives and disposition of the rising generation,

With best wishes, and hoping that I will be able to see you on the 27th, and that we will have a success of our project, Brotherly Love to yourself and Family

Fraternally

C. E. Allen
