Dear Bro. Colson

Your honor of

22. recd this A. M. and I am so glad that the prospects are good for a suitable tract of land on which to build the Florida

Christian College. Am glad you let me know of the prospects. I am

indeed praying and am willing to work for its success. I am also very glad that Bro.-

Perry is improving. I trust and pray for his recovery. I know he will be much help

In the School work
also the Church.

Please attend to the sending of these Patterns of the Bunches - which is at the Mill and send them
at your earliest convenience
