Mr. B. R. Colson

Gainesville, Fla.

Dear Sir and Bro.,

Received your letter since I wrote you also one from the party I rented from last winter at Tampa and they want to charge me more than I can see in the place. So I will expect to stop at Gainesville day or so any way.

I am little afraid the winter there would be hard on me. If I knew it would agree with me there I am most sure I would like the place for I like your schools and there is a church of Christ there etc.

Frosty damp weather I simply have to stay in here. The sunshine might help that part of it. I notice in Fla., the frosts do not have quite the same effect as here. I live in a damp corner and have had catarrh from childhood and took Asthma five years ago and it grows worse. It is of the humid kind - I cough up much.

If I could stand it there I would want to be within mile of good school and one or two miles from town I think, three miles would not be far to get from town and if I could be on a car line farther out would suit better.

For this winter I would not expect to make more than one to three acres of truck if every thing should prove favorable. Later I would want a good sized farm I think. Am not able just now to buy as all I have is invested here in farm and timbered and coal lands.

I am well located here for living, have good farm and plenty friends - fixed up very well but my health has failed on me and I am forced to go to warmer climate. I sometimes feel it may be the best any way - I have much faith in the working out of things where I must depend on God's hand to lead.

I think a good deal of Bro. Larimore and his wife although I never met her and only met Bro. L., once but have read after him most all my life occasionally. He told me - "whatever Bro.

B. R. Colson tells you is all right" and I was glad to learn that, for it is not always so you know.

I don't mind to try to do business when I am not ~~not~~ looking for unnecessary "figurs"
and tricks.

I will appreciate any thing you may be able to do in my behalf.

If it don't warm up considerably I will have to start South next week. I would be glad if I can rent a room with two beds reasonable, for few days for my family, while I look round some. I like rooms where the children can have a yard to play in if it could be convenient.

Don't go to any extra trouble anyway
I rather think I will have to go farther South
but thought by coming early next fall I might do well at your place. Yours in the faith
Very Respectfully J. B. Northcutt
