Book Review: GOT YOUR NOSE!

This is a silly story about Grandpa Max's visit to Becky. They have a fun time together, and just as he gets ready to leave, he reaches out and says, "Got your nose!"

Most children, at some time or other, have had someone "get their noses." But in this story, Grandpa really does take it. When Becky goes after him, the nose escapes and has all sorts of adventures before jumping back on Becky's face. As Becky and Grandpa Max exchange affectionate good-byes, Becky whispers, "Got your ear," and the chase is on again.

This is a silly, fun, imaginative story that will bring giggles to children. They will enjoy following the antics of the nose and reading, or listening to, how Becky talks without her nose.

The artwork is fun, colorful, and bright. Children may enjoy drawing a nose and other adventures in which the nose might take part.
