Dear Bro Larimer:

Your prospectus of "Our Florida Friend" which was addressed to me at Buchanan Ga. was forwarded to me here. and I am so completely overwhelmed with the good things it promises, that I am constrained to sit right-down and subscribe for it. - So you will find inclosed herewith, a one dollar bill to pay the subscription price. It strikes me that you and sister L. have done the right thing in locating there. I think the location an ideal one for you and for the cause of Christ.

I have never seen you nor sister Emma but have been a constant-reader of your books and other writings, which have been a great help to me in trying to walk the "highway of holiness". We have a splendid congregation here in Chattanooga

We call it - the Central Church. It is two years old and doing a fine work. As an elder of the congregation I specially invite you to stop with us in passing through the city - to stop and preach for us. All you will have to do is to let us know when you will pass through and we will do the rest. Now please don't forget this

Wishing you abundant success in your new enterprise. I am your brother in the Lord
