NOV 16 1912

Hallsville, Texas,
Nov. 13, 1912.

Dear Bro. Laminore:-

We received "Prospectus of Our Florida Friend". We are much pleased with your prospective plans. We are out some three miles from Hallsville. I mean to go in within one week and send you a one dollar money order to pay for one year's subscription to "Our Florida Friend". I want five acres of land - a part of "the other two hundred and eighty acres." I have four girls and one boy to be educated in Dixieland College. Please tell me, if you can, what five acres will cost "at reasonable rates, on easy terms." One of my girls is now in school at Texarkana. Three are in the public ^{school} near home. All, and my boy too, must go to Dixieland College, if they can.

Your brother in Christ,

T. E. Tatum.
