Mr. B. R. Colson

Gainesville, Fla.

Dear Bro. in Christ:-

I was caused to rejoice when I read in the Sun and Gospel Advocate of the effort you peoples tp establish a school in Gainesville. I am thoroughly convinced that this is the best thing for Florida, spiritually, that has ever happened; and furthermore, it will be a wonderful help to the church there, and the glory of that church will shine abroad.

It is hard to over estimate the value of, and my interest in, the "Florida Friend." I am fully persuaded that it will be a grand power for good. I want to be a subscriber from its earliest existence; wherefore please send me the first number and the bill of subscription for same.

Should you think I could be of any service at this time in the grand work, command me.

I am willing to do my uttermost. Have met Bro. Larimore

Faithfully,

J. G. Malphurs.
