Dear Bro. Tarimore.

Yesterday I received a copy of the Prospectus of our Florida Field. and I am indeed thankful that you and your wife are in Fla.

Last fall, when the physician said my husband must go to inland Fla. we cast about for a town where there was a Church of Christ. realizing spiritual strength is so much needed as physical, and it saddened me that in Fla. we have so few churches. after Jan. first we went to Enthe and remained until May. We asked about Garrisonville but feared it

Dear Bro. Larimore

Yesterday I received a copy of the Prospectus of Our Florida Friend and I am indeed thankful that you and your wife are in Fla.

Last fall, when the physician said my husband must go to inland Fla. we cast about for a town where there was a church of Christ realizing spiritual strength is as much needed as physical, and it saddened us that in Fla. we have so few churches.
After Jan. first we went to Enstis and remained until May.

We asked about Gainesville but feared it was too far north.

What was thermometer at the lowest last winter there?

You had spent the night before Thanksgiving with Bro. Boone at Jacksonville - he told me and I regretted not seeing you.

Col. Miller or some other of the brethren had a hope of your stopping to look in on me at Ennet's as you returned from Cuba. I did wish you could.

We think now we will leave Tenn. about Dec. 1st. + I wish we could stop at Gainesville + remain until the cold would compel us to go further south. Could we get apartments for light housekeeping near the

Col. Wider or some other of the brethren had a hope of you stopping to look in on us at Enstis as you returned would.

We think now we will leave Tenn. About Dec. 1st + I wish we could stop at Gainesville + remain until the cold would compel us to go further south.
Could we get apartments for light housekeeping near the church and town - say two rooms and at what cost?

If it is not asking too much could you find but for us?

Mr. Roberts has a kidney trouble and must have a special diet so we can not well board, though the diet is easy to prepare being simple. If we should decide to board for a month or two, what could we get a room and board for - for Mr. Roberts, our little son, Dan Jr. eight years old, + myself?

Inclosed is one dollar ($1.00) for "Our Corner Book" for our only child, Dan H. Roberts Jr.
Address - - - Triune, Tenn.
& don't forget your picture. Please.

Always wishing you long life and health I am with kindest regards to you and sister Lavinore
