Mr T B Larimore,
Gainesville, Fla

Dear Sir and Brother:

I am in receipt of your paper, Our Florida Friend, and am quite favorably impressed with the proposition. I shall be pleased to send you subscription for the paper in the next few days and shall be glad to receive from time to time any information that you may have to present in regard to the Dixieland proposition. What inducements does Gainesville offer to bookkeepers, stenographers, clerks, etc.? I have had experience as general office man with wholesale lumber concern here for the past nine years and could give very satisfactory references. As soon as you think it expedient I could, perhaps, arrange to go and talk the matter over with you. I feel sure that you have undertaken a work that will result in the accomplishment of much good. I wish you success.

Awaiting your reply at convenience, I am

Your Brother in Christ,

A. Clark
