TAX COLLECTOR CITRUS COUNTY,
FLORIDA.

Inverness Fla. Nov. 20th, 1912

Dear Bro. Colson

Your letter of recent date to hand and would say that I have been trying very hard to find time to come to Gainesville, also trying to change some of my holdings here that I could take some part in the work that is being taken at Gainesville but I find that it is difficult to find people that have considerable money to invest and I cant afford to make much reduction of anything that I have, as all that I have is paying me a good commission, hoping that I will succeed in makeing some trade in the near future that I can be able to take an active part in the work up there, I am coming up just the first day that I can spare the time from my Office, as I am doing all of my work and I have no one that I can leave in Office when I am out, Best wishes and much success for the great cause in which we represent,

Fraternally
