OUR FLORIDA FRIEND
Gainesville, Fla.

November 23, 1912.

Mr. A. Clark,

East Lake, Tenn. Box 45.

Dear Sir:-

Your letter to Bro. Larimore has been referred to me with reference to your work. I believe that a competent bookkeeper-stenographer could secure a very good position in Gainesville, and if you will tell me more about yourself, what salary you would expect, your age, whether married or not, and anything else that anybody would want to know about an employee, I will see what can be done. If you could conveniently take a run down here, however, I think it would be well for you to do so, and look the proposition over, and it might be that you could while here find something that you would like.

Let me hear from you further.

Yours sincerely,

Business Editor.
