November 23, 1912.

Mr. William Robinson,
Aripeka, Florida.

Dear Bro. Robinson:-

Your letter to Bro. Larimore has been referred to me. I do not think it would be possible for us to find anyone here with whom you could trade your property on the Gulf. I believe that the thing you should do is to either sell or rent your property there and come up here and investigate and buy land in Dixieland Park. I believe that it would be to your interest to do so, and would like to correspond with you further in reference to this matter.

Yours sincerely,

Business Editor.
