NOV 30 1912

Watertown, Tenn. Nov. 27, 1912.

My dear brother;

For two winters wife and I have talked of the practicability of moving to Florida to avoid the rigid winters. That is to say, Mrs. Baker is in such a physical condition that the winters hurt her very much. Last winter I experienced a similar effect. The exposure almost stopped my career. On reading "Our Florida Friends" which you kindly sent me, our interest in Florida was reawakened and raised in us an interest beyond anything we had before felt.

I am inclined to come out sometime this winter and "view the landscape". In the meantime I shall appreciate the favor

if you will answer the following questions in a personal letter:
About how many loyal Christians in Gainsville and near there?
Give approximate selling price of unimproved real estate in and near Gainsville.

Give state and county tax on the hundred dollars.

Give corporation tax per hundred.

Is the land around Gainsville adapted to the growth of Alfalfa?

Well, I was defeated for the Legislature by a majority of 198. I received a large majority of the votes of the white people. "Hon" voted the negroes by hundreds. They were sold and bought like cattle. I made a clean canvass. I said nothing about Lou or his record.

My words were concerning
the moral issues exclusively.
My supporters were lagging in organization. I entered the race very much against my inclination. I am glad the contest is over. I have lost no sleep on account of my defeat.
I only regret that we
have a certain citizenship
which stands for partisanship
against the great principles of morality, honesty and fairness.
However, I have no doubt whatever that ultimately the right will prevail.
I shall never be a candidate again. I have never had the least inclination toward seeking office or power for the sake of office or power. In other words I have never had the least political aspiration.

I read everything in "Our Florida Friend" there with great interest.
