Lesson I--REVIEW OF THE FIRST THIRTEEN CENTURIES

INTRODUCTION: Last spring we reached the high point of the Middle Ages--the Thirteenth Century--some look on it as the most Christian of all centuries--the time when the church most completely dominated Western Civilization. The great pope was Innocent III--the pope who dreamed of the church as a leaning tower with only a pale grey monk holding it up--Francis of Assisi.

