Dear Sir:- I have saw in the paper, that you are making your home in Fla. I have been thinking about coming there to spend most of the winter. I was in Fla last January and only stayed a few days, I did not learn much about the country. I went to Brooksville, Tampa and St. Petersburg. I saw some country that I thought I would like to live in. I also passed through

Dear Sir:- I have saw in the paper, that you are making your home in Fla. I have been thinking about coming there to spend most of the winter. I was in Fla. Last January and only stayed a few days, I did not learn much about the country. I went to Brooksville, Tampa and St. Petersburg. I saw some country that I thought I would like to live in. I also passed through Gainsville, although it was after night and I could not tell much about the town. I am going to ask you a few questions concerning the country and trust you will give me true answers. I would like to know if it is a pretty good farming country around Gainsville or not? and what are the principal crops that they raise there? Would that be a good place for stock raising or not? Does corn, oats and timothy grow there? I would like to know what I could buy land for near Gainsville? Does most all kinds of fruits grow well there?

I believe I would like the climate what little I experienced of it.
I and my wife are members of the Christian Church and I have been for a number of years. We have no church close by us; and we would like to be where we could hear some good preacher.

Please answer this at once and maybe I will see you in the future.

Your bro. in Christ

P.S. Would that be a good place ^{for a} merchant
