MID-ATLANTIC DIRECTORY

Two hundred one congregations with 7,100 members are listed in this third edition of the MID-ATLANTIC DIRECTORY.

Thanks to all who supplied the survey data or otherwise participated in its publication. For those congregations that did not return the questionnaire before the deadline for printing, the data marked (*) were repeated substantially as they appeared in the 1965 directory and therefore may be in error.

FOREWORD

This is the third attempt to publish a Directory of Churches of Christ for the Mid-Atlantic region. The 1961 effort was confined to congregations in the District of Columbia, Maryland, and Virginia. In the 1966 Directory, and in this one, information is also included about churches in Delaware, Pennsylvania, and the eastern portion of West Virginia. This directory includes churches in the state of New Jersey also.

Each succeeding Directory lists a number of newly established congregations, and portrays significant growth in most of the previously established groups. In a decade of generally declining interest in religion, Churches of Christ in the Mid-Atlantic have enjoyed a remarkable, God-ordained growth.

Churches in this area have an unequalled opportunity to touch the nerve centers of the nation and the world. Not since the days of imperial Rome has the church been in such a position as ours to have our influence felt around the world.

Serving a population area of more than 20,000,000 souls, in these days of mobility, churches in our area serve millions more in the span of a few years.

This Directory is sent forth:

1. To help brethren and sisters in the Lord know and love each other more.
2. To assist travelers in finding places of worship.
3. To publicize good works being done by area congregations.
4. To provide information for those moving to Mid-Atlantic cities.

I am indebted to Wade Smith and his co-workers at the Arlington Church of Christ for the diligent effort required to compile the information in this book. It is an honor to be neighbor to such a fine church, and to be asked to send forth this word of greeting. May the Lord richly bless each of you.

A DECADE OF PROGRESS

An interesting comparison of the churches in Virginia during the past 10 years is tabulated below.

	1960	1965	1970
Total congregations	54	59	59
Estimated membership	3,430	4,500	5,667
Number of ministers	26	41	47
Congregations with elders	12	18	23

On an average, contribution per congregation was $344 and $3.60 per member per week. This is a $0.40 per week increase over five years ago.

One aim of this directory is to assist Virginia visitors and residents in locating a congregation of the church by mail, or in person. Most congregations are listed in telephone directories. Call the one nearest you.

VISITORS ARE ALWAYS WELCOME.

FOR HOMELESS CHILDREN IN THE MID-ATLANTIC REGION

Church of Christ Children's Home,

The Home was granted a license October 7, 1964, by the Commonwealth of Virginia, as the Church of Christ Children's Home under the Board of Directors, which at that time was composed of the officers of the Arlington church. The first site was a leased 37-acre farm near Haymarket. In May some 180 volunteers joined in a day of fellowship and work on house renovation. The house, though commodious in size, was limited and could not serve a great many children. On November 4 the first children, three brothers, ages 5, 6 and 7, entered this home under the supervision of Nelson and Lois Smith, the first house parents. Although several congregations and individuals contributed financial assistance, the major part of early support came from Arlington and Fairfax counties and nearby Maryland.

In April of 1965 a dinner was held at Arlington in behalf of the Home. A total of 17 congregations were represented--some as far away as Norfolk and Newport News. The 1965 budget was $25,000. Some 15 congregations gave financial support.

Recognizing from the beginning that this first site was inadequate, a search was initiated to find a more suitable and permanent location. Thirty to fifty acres within fifty miles was decided to be a sort of criteria for the site. In June the Robert R. Coons, living at Leesburg, gave the Home 30 acres of land located on their farm in Fauquier County on which to build the necessary facilities. However, the county board of supervisors would not issue a permit, so this property could not be used.

On October 1, 1965, Bill and Barbara Fugerer of Vandalia, Ohio, succeeded the Nelson Smiths as house parents. Bill was transferred by the FAA to the Leesburg Air Control Station where he continued his secular work. With their children and the addition of Allen Goodman from New York state, the house was filled to capacity.

In the summer of 1967, the Fugerers decided to move to Henderson, Tennessee, where Bill was to attend college. Jim and Martha Burris, from Livingston, Montana, succeeded the Fugerers as house parents. In October, 1967 our present site was purchased. The residence on the property has been remodeled and enlarged. The Burris family has been living there for over a year. Many congregations and individuals have assisted financially and for this, the Board of Directors for the Home is most grateful.

 PLANS FOR THE FUTURE ***

The Board has already authorized for 1970 the erection of two five-bedroom residences, capable of housing 8 children and house parents; the constructions of necessary roads, sewage systems, water and power extensions as required. Three additional residences and other facilities will soon be constructed in the first phase of development at Gainesville.

The Board of Directors would welcome an opportunity to personally visit congregations or interested individuals to discuss in detail long-range planning and support of the Home. Current news of this Home will be provided by periodic news bulletins mailed to all who are interested.

The Home is located near Gainesville, Route #2, Box 35A.

PROGRESS IN MARYLAND

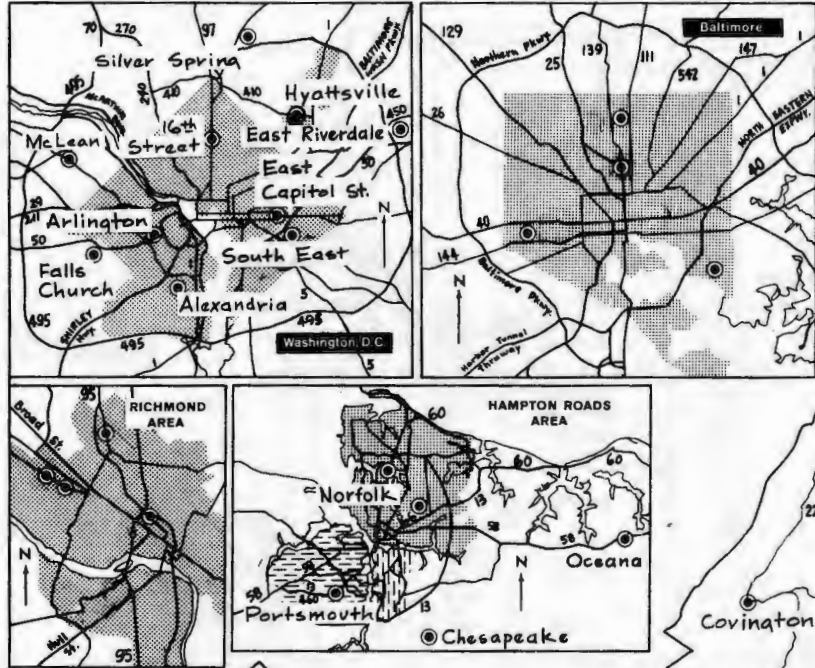

In 1965 18 congregations reported a membership of 1365. Three congregations had elders. The 1965 survey for Maryland did not list contributions nor property values. It is certain that great progress has been made in these categories as well as the gain in reported membership of almost 1000 since 1965.

This book lists all known churches of Christ and the tabulated data shows their status as of July, 1970. The state of Maryland has an area of 10,577 square miles and a population of 3,250,000. It is a good place to live and earn a lively hood but is truly a home mission field.

opportunity

Opportunity is the growing reputation of Northeastern Christian Junior College. Recognizing her obligation to demonstrate Christian concern, the college's responsible Open Door Policy provides special opportunities to the economically, educationally and socially disadvantaged:

No responsible student is turned away just because he has no money. Although Northeastern's funds are limited, students are guided to available aid programs and private resources to meet their financial needs.

Northeastern's academic program is designed to benefit both the talented and the disadvantaged student. Any high school graduate is given a chance at Northeastern. Special summer programs, individual attention and personal counseling give the student with academic weaknesses the opportunity to receive a college education without lowering the academic standards and requirements of the college. Students with exceptional talents also benefit from the personal attention of interested teachers.

Northeastern's doors are open to all races. No predetermined ratio of Blacks to Whites is set by the college. Interracial understanding and respect develop in an atmosphere of genuine equality with virtually no tension.

Students of all religions, and those without religion, find an open door at Northeastern. The college was founded on the premise that religion is the necessary foundation to morality, that the Bible is uniquely God's message to man and that Biblical training should be a part of every student's academic experience. Therefore religion classes, chapel attendance and a high standard of conduct are required of every student.

The committed Christian student can prepare for greater service and those not committed or those who have rejected religion are exposed to an academically prepared Christian faculty and Christian principles in classes, chapel, and in every area of college life. The response of students each year demonstrates the effectiveness of this exposure and the unique program of Northeastern Christian Junior College.

PROGRESS IN NEW JERSEY

For more than 10 years, brother Charles L. Brown (presently serving as minister of the Manassas, Virginia, congregation), served as a minister in New Jersey. He is quite familiar with the status and recent growth of the congregations in this state. It is to him that the editors of this Directory give thanks for much of the data on the New Jersey churches. He found:

THE STATUS OF NEW JERSEY CHURCHES IN 1961 -

"There are twenty-four (24) churches of Christ in the state with a total membership of approximately 1500. The average membership is near 65. At present there are fifteen men giving their full-time to the ministry. Six of the twenty-four churches are completely self-supporting and carry on a full program of work which includes supporting one or more evangelists. Another, bringing the total to seven, will be added in 1962. Only two of the churches have elders.

"Sixteen of the twenty-four congregations have their own meeting places. Four new buildings are now being constructed at a total cost of approximately $200,000. When these are completed, the churches in the state will own property approaching one million dollars, more than $750,000."

THE STATUS OF NEW JERSEY CHURCHES IN 1969

The oldest congregation - Tabernacle, established, 1914.
The number of churches established before 1950 - seven.
Six churches have elders and there are 19 full-time ministers.
Combined membership is estimated as 2,500.
The average size of New Jersey congregations is 80.
The largest congregation - 14th Street Church, Newark, 296 members.
There are 26 churches which own their buildings.
Twenty congregations reported a debt of $530,000 and an annual budget of $364,000.
There are 10 churches receiving outside financial assistance.

The editors hope this data and this Directory will be helpful to all who live in or plan to move to or visit the Garden State.

GROUND-BREAKING FOR CHILDREN'S HOME

The Arlington congregation invites everyone to be present at the children's home site in Gainesville, Virginia at 2:00 p.m. Saturday, July 11. At that time ground will be broken for the construction of two additional homes for dependent children.

Keynoting the occasion will be the Honorable William B. Spong, Jr., United States Senator from Virginia, and Ed Enzor, an elder at the Arlington church.

Jerry Denman of the Arlington church recently said: "One program that we should all be praying for and working for is our children's home at Gainesville. The opportunities associated with that work defy the imagination. It is a soul-winning work. It is a youth program where we are dealing with young lives not yet touched by years spent in vanity and pride, as in the song we sing. It is a work that can strengthen us individually and as a congregation because there is something that everyone can do. It is a work with practically limitless expansion capability. We have one house at Gainesville now. Soon there will be three.

BROTHERHOOD FELLOWSHIP

The ground breaking at Gainesville, July 11 was a great day of fellowship. Over 300 Christians and friends gathered to inspect our new home sites, participate in recreation programs, as well as renew acquaintances. Senator Spong and other key note speakers commended the Churches of Christ in sponsoring such a program for the rearing of homeless children.

FELLOWSHIP IN THE MID-ATLANTIC

On November 11 of this year there will be the Annual Fellowship of the Churches of Christ in the MID-ATLANTIC REGION. ARLINGTON CHURCH OF CHRIST will be the host congregation. All church leaders are urged to attend. Programs are planned to promote more effectively the work of us all.

THE DATE IS - November 11
