Mr. B. R. Colson,
Gainesville, Fla.

Dear Bro. Colson:

Yours of The 29th ult. in answer to my letter of the 25th received.

I graduated in The school of Telegraphy and Railroad Accounting, but as I do not wish to follow This line of work, I do not know That my schooling along This line would be of any special value to me in office work; however, I also took a course in Type-writing and Business Correspondence, passing The sixty words per minute test in typewriting. But took no Shorthand. Have had practical experience only in R.R. Accounting, typewriting and telegraphy.

I could not command any big salary until I could better prepare myself for the work by experience with the work to be done.

Could I get in with a chance for promotion,

I should be willing to begin on a salary sufficient to pay expenses, as I should like to go to Florida.

Appreciating anything you can do for me and thanking you for this information, I am,

Yours fraternally,
