the envelope, but we thought probably it was a mistake, that perhaps you intended putting one of each.

Your picture is good and we every one appreciate it so much. Bro. Larimont since I subscribed for your paper, I thought I would try to get ten subscribers and give Brother Jimmie's little girl (Helen) the paper, as I would get it free for 10 names, so I am sending ~~the~~ names today as they are very anxious to be classed with the 500 "lucky" ones. Mrs. Reed (Miss Kate Parks) said she would think the pictures alone worth the $1.00. Others have promised to take the paper but are not ready at present to give me their order, so I would like to know if names sent in a little later will count on the list to make ten? Would wait a few days later and send mine at one time but am afraid would cause these to lose your photographs.

We are going to get your book for a Xmas present for Willie, Herschell likes farming, some better than school I think, but Willie devotes most of his time to reading, and we want to be very careful what he reads.

Mr. Hardwick would enjoy being with you in your "Pa. home."

He does not like cold winters and we have some so cold up here.

We have had nice

"hog-killing" weather for several weeks. We have killed 4 nice hogs, and have plenty sausage.

Guess it does not seem like sausage time to you down there where the flowers are blooming.

Mrs. Perkins asked me to tell you that her brother Jesse and the boy about his age whom you baptized the same day, made such good men, and the past summer both died within a few days of each other, and Guess it does not seem lik sausage time to you down there where the flowers are blooming. Mrs. Hoskins asked me to tell you that her brother Jesse and the boy about his age whome you baptized the same day, made such good men, and the past summer both died within a few days of each other, and she is so thankful that you led them in to the Kingdom while they were so young.

God richly blessed us when he sent Bro. Hoskins and wife to our town.

Bro. Larimore I appreciate more than I can tell, what you told Mrs. Larimore of me, I know I often fall far short of my duty, but it is not done wilfully, and I pray that I may be spared to help to raise our little boys, and that I may never give you cause to think otherwise of me.

Love from everyone to you and
Mrs. Larimore.
